Peterson, 2013-12-31 Creative ways of thinking about leadership are helpful to guide practice and personal growth This book builds a strategic roadmap for creative leadership practice putting the spotlight on a leader's professional development journey in the process The book is about leadership on the ground in higher education where the rubber hits the road It can also be useful in business or for anyone wanting to think outside the square Through a creative storytelling approach the author takes the reader through Tuscany and her on the job experience as a leader of learning and teaching Along the way she explains some of the theoretical influences on her thinking and practice in ways and combinations she hadn't read about in other leadership books or experienced in professional development programmes Through real stories the author shows how she made creative connections in building her own knowledge on present and past experience with reflection on how practice can be improved with a clear focus on collegiality and strategic outcomes This approach reflects the five creative leadership signposts that she explains and illustrates throughout the book     Catalogue of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum British Museum.
