Mackey,1882 A legend differs from an historical narrative only in this that it is without documentary evidence of authenticity It is the offspring solely of tradition Its details may be true in part or in whole There may be no internal evidence to the contrary or there may be internal evidence that they are altogether false But neither the possibility of truth in the one case nor the certainty of falsehood in the other can remove the traditional narrative from the class of legends It is a legend simply because it rests on no written foundation It is oral and therefore legendary Epilanguages Pascale Hummel,2009 Catalog of the Kristine Mann Library of the Analytical Psychology Club of New York, Inc: Subject catalog Kristine Mann Library,1978 The History of Freemasonry, Its Antiquities, Symbols, Constitutions, Customs, Etc.
