Returning Home to Our Bodies Abigail Rose Clarke, 2024-01-09 For readers of adrienne maree brown Staci K Haines and Robin Wall Kimmerer A body based healing model that interrogates what we've been wrongly taught about hierarchies of nature and the body and pushes back against the white supremacy colonialism patriarchy and capitalism embedded in modern embodiment practices Pushing back against a consumerist pleasure centric somatics industry that privileges product over process Abigail Rose Clarke reminds us that truly meaningful embodiment practice nurtures our relationships among self nature and community Combining the rigor of the scientific method with the poetry and lyricism of movement and somatic studies Clarke's somatic learning system The Embodied Life Method centers the body as a guide through today's most seemingly intractable social and environmental challenges reclaiming the body as a source of liberatory comfort in times of great uncertainty and yet possibility With tools and practices to help us better understand and dismantle the many ways our bodies are weaponized to serve domination systems topics covered include Harnessing the vitality of curiosity and experimentation Using nature as a guide to possibility Embracing the necessity of difference Exposing the lie of universal isolation Dismantling the fallacy of hierarchy Uncovering the truth of endless capacity Awe as a driving force for transformation With methods honed over decades of inquiry teaching and practice Returning Home to Our Bodies provides a lucid body based model of healing and restoration one that imagines a world beyond systems of domination marginalization and isolation to nurture embodied whole community liberation
