Exchanges between Literature and Science from the 1800s to the 2000s Márcia Lemos,2017-03-07 This collection of essays responds to the intense interest that the relations between the discourses of literature and other cultural practices and those of science have obtained throughout various fields of study Spanning a period between the mid nineteenth century and the twenty first century the work collected here is firmly focused on the cultural significance of scientific discoveries and practices and especially on the manifold representations of science and scientists in literature and the arts Its four sections develop from an initial moment of dwindling indefiniteness of borders between literature and the sciences to the historical perception of an increasing divide between the two cultures to use C P Snow s influential expression as well as calls for a form of convergence or consilience in Edward Wilson s words The final section turns to the medical sciences a porous scientific discipline in relation to the humanities which suggests that consilience can already be found partially in specific areas As such this collection contributes towards critically extending that integration through the discussion of key literary representations of science its promises and its problems

Hermeneutic Ontology in Gadamer and Woolf Adam Noland, 2019-03-07 This volume analyses Virginia Woolf's novels through a philosophical lens providing an interpretive overview of her works through Hans Georg Gadamer's hermeneutic ontology The text argues that interpretation itself is the central subject matter of Woolf's novels in order to understand these novels in all of their complexity and depth it is both useful and helpful to comprehend the interpretive pillars that inform these narratives Indeed interpretation became a central theme during the Modernist movement and Woolf's novels took part in this conversation For his part Gadamer was an important voice in these discussions dedicating his life's work to the concept of interpretation Gadamer focused on the universality of interpretation arguing that it is inescapable and irrevocably bound up with existence In many ways Woolf's novels represent an enactment of Gadamer's philosophy as they emphasize the radical questionability of the world what this interpretive imperative requires of its participants and the potential yield that may result On the other end Gadamer's philosophy acquires a concrete praxis when applied to Woolf's novels His philosophy hinges on the universality of interpretation as it manifests itself in daily existence the literary text and its interpretation participate in this universality and is shaped by it

Cusanus Today David Albertson, 2024-06 At the end of the nineteenth century German theologians and philosophers rediscovered the Renaissance cardinal Nicholas of Cusa 1401-1464 Immediately they hailed Cusanus as the first modern thinker a brilliant German rival to the French Descartes But since the founding of the Cusanus critical edition in 1927 up to its conclusion in 2005 historians have gradually learned that Nicholas was more of a medieval preacher and contemplative than a modern philosopher Yet over the same century modern German and French readers were already digging into Nicholas's many works There they encountered an exciting voice with fresh perspectives about God's immanence in the cosmos and the awesome capacities of the human mind Leading philosophers and theologians from Erich Przywara to Karl Jaspers to Hans Georg Gadamer and from Gilles Deleuze to Jacques Lacan to Michel de Certeau found their own thinking stimulated by the cardinal's innovative concepts and interdisciplinary style Even as Nicholas shifted from modern to medieval among historians he was emerging as a contemporary interlocutor for moderns and postmoderns Who could have guessed that the first debate between Jean-Luc Marion and Emmanuel Falque would take place over the fifteenth-century mystical dialogue De visione dei If Meister Eckhart found his moment amidst Deconstruction in prior decades Nicholas of Cusa is our thinker for today His interests anticipate themes in continental philosophy of religion whether alterity invisibility the fold or the icon His habit of interweaving philosophy and theology anticipates current debates on the thresholds of phenomenology Our volume first maps the contours of modern receptions of Nicholas of Cusa in French and German spheres and then beyond Europe to the Americas and Japan It also hosts the next round of engagement by some of today's most original Christian thinkers Emmanuel Falque John Milbank and David Bentley Hart

Essays, Speeches and Sermons Connop Thirlwall, 1880 Fragrant Flowers Bloom

Ruiwen Chen, 2015-11-01 The term ContactZone was coined in postcolonial discourse to signify the place where cultures and religions meet. It implies that first contact, cultural, religious exchange and conflict have always been determined by power relations. Making use of communication theories, hermeneutics and aesthetics, intercultural theology generates new terminologies and theoretical tools to explore these interactions. Its scope ranges from issues such as dialogue and syncretism to fundamentalism and ethnicity. Perspectives of culture, religion, race, class, gender and inclusion alike are involved in the necessary multi-axial approach. ContactZone creates a space where a choir of multiple voices is responding to the challenges of cultural, religious pluralism, rethinking theology in the 21st century. The series comprises monographs, incl. PhD dissertations and anthologies, incl. conference proceedings. Der Begriff ContactZone wurde im postkolonialen Diskurs geprägt um den Ort zu kennzeichnen, an dem Kulturen und Religionen aufeinandertreffen. Er impliziert, dass der Erste Kontakt kulturell, religiös, Austausch und Konflikt immer auch durch Machtverhältnisse bestimmt werden. Unter Zuhilfenahme von Kommunikationstheorien, Hermeneutik und Ästhetik entwickelt Interkulturelle Theologie neue Terminologien und ein theoretisches Instrumentarium, um diese Interaktionsprozesse zu erforschen. Ihr Spektrum reicht dabei von Themen wie Dialog und Synkretismus bis zu Fundamentalismus und Ethnizität. Perspektiven wie Kultur, Religion, Rasse, Klasse, Gender und Inklusion sind gleichermaßen in diese notwendigerweise multi-axiale Herangehensweise involviert. ContactZone kreiert einen Raum, in dem ein Chor vielfältiger Stimmen auf die Herausforderungen des kulturell, religiösen Pluralismus im 21. Jahrhundert reagiert. Die Serie umfasst Monographien, einschliesslich Doktorarbeiten und Sammelbände.

An Essay on the Ritual of the New Testament. By Thomas Edward Bridgett Thomas Edward BRIDGETT, 1873 Symposium - Société Canadienne Pour L'herméneutique Et la Pensée Postmoderne, 1999 Perspectives on Philosophy of Communication Pat Arneson, 2007
