

REASON VS REVELATION

Revelation And Reason

Léo Pomar

Revelation And Reason:

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher

Revelation and Reason in Islam A.J. Arberry, 2013-02-01 The Scholastic Problem was the focus of much debate in Islam for some centuries before it became the chief crux of learned discussion in medieval Christianity When originally published in 1957 this volume was the first survey of the subject to appear in English It reviews the conflict within Islam between Revelation and Reason and examines the attempts made by theology philosophy mysticism and authoritarianism to resolve the dilemma Revelation and Reason in Islam Arthur John Arberry, 2008 Revelation, Reason and Reality Joris Geldhof, 2007 This study provides an in depth analysis of the relationship between modernity and Christianity The author argues that the notion of revelation is eminently reasonable and indissolubly connected with being and reality He takes Jaspers philosophy of religion as representative of the classical modern critique and gives it its due He then takes a step backward so to speak and by means of a consideration of the history of ideas seeks to rehabilitate the Christian understanding of revelation To do this he draws upon Schelling's remarkable philosophy of revelation and Baader's much less familiar speculative dogmatics However this study is much more than a profound philosophical and theological account of the thought of Jaspers Schelling and Baader It is above all an eloquent defence of the plausibility and intelligibility of what Christians have always believed In fact the author makes a compelling case for the claim that revelation is that without which Christianity cannot be thought Reason and Revelation. Being an Examination into the nature and contents of Scripture Revelation as compared with other forms of truth William HORNE (Minister of Lindsay Street Church, Dundee.), 1876

Reason and Revelation William Horne, 1876 Divine Revelation, Human Reason and Science Ayatullah Jawadi Amuli, 2018-02-22 The role of knowledge method of reasoning reasoning and revelation and instances of harmony between revelation and reason Reason's Inquisition Christopher A. Colmo, 2023-08-29 Reasons Inquisition On Doubtful Ground is an exploration in the literature of political philosophy before and after Alfarabi and ranging from Thucydides to Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin These studies most of them previously unpublished open inquiries into theory and practice reason and revelation and the relation between thinkers ancient and modern Readers may be surprised to see the Platonist Alfarabi presented as a critic of Plato's theory in the name of practice while Alfarabi and Hobbes are shown to have a common interest in a theory commensurate with action Strauss Voegelin and Lucien Febvre all explore the problem of reason and revelation in relation to the limits of human knowledge An ambitious study of Shakespeare's Macbeth explores the ambiguity of both nature and knowledge in relation to male and female good and evil present and future The contrast between ancients and moderns is explicit in questions of the modern aspects of Marlowe's Doctor Faustus and of Rousseau's reversal of Plato Kierkegaard and Heidegger bring radical modernity into focus against a Platonic background in the closing essay These diverse essays attempt to follow the thinkers and themes explored in turning a critical gaze upon reason itself

Leo Strauss and the Theologico-Political Problem Heinrich Meier, 2006-12-25 This book by one of the most prominent interpreters of Leo Strauss's thought was the first to address the problem that Leo Strauss himself said was the theme of his studies the theologico political problem or the confrontation with the theological and the political alternative to philosophy as a way of life In his theologico political treatise which comprises four parts and an appendix Heinrich Meier clarifies the distinction between political theology and political philosophy and reappraises the unifying center of Strauss's philosophical enterprise The book is the culmination of Meier's work on the theologico political problem It will interest anyone who seeks to understand both the problem caused by revelation for philosophy and the challenge posed by political religious radicalism The appendix makes available for the first time two lectures by Strauss that are immediately relevant to the subject of this book and that will open the way for future research and debate on the legacy of Strauss

C.S. Lewis—On the Christ of a Religious Economy, 3.2 P. H. Brazier, 2014-01-16 C S Lewis On the Christ of a Religious Economy II Knowing Salvation opens with a discussion of the Anscombe Lewis debate the theological issues relating to revelation and reason Christ the Logos This leads into Lewis on the Church the body of Christ and his understanding of religion how is salvation enacted through the churches how do we know we are saved This concludes with for Lewis the question of sufferance and atonement substitution and election deliverance and redemption heaven hell resurrection and eternity Christ's work of salvation on the cross What did Lewis say of humanity in relation to God now Immanuel God with us incarnate crucified resurrected and ascended for humanity What of Lewis's own death and that of his wife What does this tell us about the triune God of Love who is Love This volume forms the second part of the third book in a series of studies on the theology of C S Lewis titled C S Lewis Revelation and the Christ The books are written for academics and students but also crucially for those people ordinary Christians without a theology degree who enjoy and gain sustenance from reading Lewis's work www.cslewisandthechrist.net
