Revelations For A New Era A Matthew:

A Mediator in Matthew Craig D. Saunders, 2021-03-01 What is a consistent theological meaning of the Son of Man in the Gospel of Matthew For a suitable response it is essential to analyze all thirty Son of Man logia in their relative literary contexts and in relationship to the gospel as a whole Also to bring out the uniqueness in Matthew's portrayal of the Son of Man a comparison with the other Synoptic Gospels aids the investigation This work argues that the answer lies in the role of the Son of Man in the first Gospel In Matthew Jesus the Son of Man functions as mediator of God's will to his genuine disciples As the Son of Man journeys through his earthly life climaxing in his death and resurrection Jesus mediates God's will through his message and works and by exhibiting active obedience to his Father in the heavens Jesus's genuine disciples learn how to emulate the Son of Man's character and ministry enabling them to continue it in their future mission At his parousia the Son of Man will mediate God's promised vindication and reward for his genuine disciples who have proven their fidelity to Jesus and God's will

Revelation (THNTC) John Christopher Thomas, Frank D. Macchia, 2016 The book of Revelation is perhaps the most theologically complex and literarily sophisticated text in the New Testament In this commentary John Christopher Thomas and Frank Macchia make the brilliant but challenging text of Revelation more accessible and easier to understand on its own terms rather than as a futuristic prophecy In addition to their literary exegetical and theological analysis of the text they offer sustained theological essays on the book's most significant themes and issues accenting especially the underappreciated place of the Holy Spirit in the theology of the book
