Reverberation Machines Richard Foreman,1985 Acts of Resistance in Late-Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet,2019-10-29 In Acts of Resistance in Late Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet presents a close analysis of the theatre practice of two ground breaking artists Richard Foreman and Jenny Kemp active over the late twentieth and the early twenty first century In addition he tracks the development of a form of epileptic writing over the course of his own career as writer director Murphet argues that these three auteurs have developed subversive alternatives to the previously dominant forms of dramatic realism in order to re think the relationship between theatre and reality They write and direct their own work and their artistic experimentation is manifest in the tension created between their content and their form Murphet investigates how the works are made rather than focusing upon an interpretation of their meaning Through an examination of these artists we gain a deeper understanding of a late modernist paradigm shift in theatre practice

Performance Theatre and the Poetics of Failure Sara Jane Bailes,2011-03-17 What does it mean to fail in performance How might staging failure reveal theatre s potential to expand our understanding of social political and everyday reality What can we learn from performances that expose and then celebrate their ability to fail In Performance Theatre and the Poetics of Failure Sara Jane Bailes begins with Samuel Beckett and considers failure in performance as a hopeful strategy She examines the work of internationally acclaimed UK and US experimental theatre companies Forced Entertainment Goat Island and Elevator Repair Service addressing accepted narratives about artistic and cultural value in contemporary theatre making Her discussion draws on examples where misfire the accidental and the intentionally amateur challenge our perception of skill and virtuosity in such diverse modes of performance as slapstick and punk Detailed rehearsal and performance analysis are used to engage theory and contextualise practice extending the dialogue between theatre arts live art and postmodern dance The result is a critical account of performance theatre that offers essential reading for practitioners scholars and students of Performance Theatre and Dance Studies

Contemporary Dramatists ,1993 The War Against Naturalism in the Contemporary American Theatre Robert J. Andreach,2008 The book applies playwright John Guare s statement that the war against naturalism is the history of the American theatre in the Twentieth Century to selected plays by important contemporary American playwrights Crucial to the argument is the recognition that a war presupposes two sides with neither side defeating the other for if naturalistic theatre were to win all theatre would be linear with characters circumscribed by their heredity and environment If non naturalistic theatre were to win all theatre would be a hodgepodge of incoherent images After isolating elements of a naturalistic play in its philosophical and mode of production sense the book examines plays that wage war in language and character The plays are all of the past few decades some by Foreman and Wellman are disorienting some by Albee Groff and Maxwell are controversial others by Eno and Corthron are by playwrights on the verge of major careers still others by Overmyer and Jenkin are drawing aspiring playwrights to them as models of new exciting writing for the theatre All of them whether colliding genres and styles or destabilizing meaning as in plays by Gibson and Long or reclaiming a mystery as in plays by Ludlam Greenberg and Donagy challenge naturalism s boundaries The book not only provides an approach to the contemporary American drama theatre but also brings together playwrights not perceived as having any connections other than the fact that they are creating plays today The text is appropriate for undergraduate students through professors and practitioners Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism ,1991 Modern Drama Scholarship and Criticism 1981-1990 Charles A. Carpenter,1997 A selective list of publications for the period offering some 25 200 entries no annotations arranged by nationality and linguistic groups Most entries concern literary currents in drama since the last third of the 19th century playwrights who lived at least part of their lives in the 20th century noted directors and performance theory For students and scholars of modern dramatic literature While annual supplements of recent publications appear in the journal Modern Drama new compilers took a publication date of 1991 as their starting point for listings leaving some 2 000 items collected after 1992 appearing only in this volume Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Contemporary Dramatists D.
