To Test the Limits of Our Endurance Shlomo Giora Shoham, 2010-03-08 A new approach to culture and cultural patterns is elucidated through relating a theory of personality and social characters to the genesis of myths and religions Cultures are classified along a continuum and their relationship to a given personality structure is based on the assumptions that cultures possess generalized traits and that these traits relate to characters of individuals Cultures like man pass through the age phases of childhood youth manhood culminating in old age It is the cultural goals and the means to achieve them that become the culture pattern What are these cultural goals How do we achieve them Every society and culture has its own indigenous mythology Myths move in time from sacred myths recorded before history to modern myths like master detectives Sherlock Holmes and Hercule Poirot or the master spy John Le Carré or even Superman who realizes the dreams of omnipotence among the downtrodden henpecked inhabitants of Metropolis Thus myths provide meaning and motivation for human behavior

The Genesis of Genesis Shlomo Giora Shoham, 2011-01-18 The Genesis of Genesis is about the mytho empiricism of creation cosmogony In its attempt to compare the mythologies of the ancient Eastern Mediterranean cultures Egyptian Greek Judaic and Mesopotamian the Judaic cosmogony of genesis which is unique in its reliance on the word as creative agent is contrasted with the Egyptian Greek and Mesopotamian mythologies which are more deterministic

Fischer Filmgeschichte: Zwischen Tradition und Neuorientierung, 1961-1976 Werner Faulstich, Helmut Korte, 1992 Dreams, Doubt, and Dread Zachary Thomas Settle, Taylor Worley, 2016-08-24 Films are modern spiritual phenomena They function as such in at least three profound ways world projection thought experiments and catharsis i.e. as dreams doubt and dread Understanding film in this way allows for a theological account of the experience that speaks to the religious possibilities of film that far extend the portrayal of religious themes or content Dreams Doubt and Dread The Spiritual in Film aims to address films as spiritual experiences This collection of short essays and dialogues examines films phenomenologically through the experience of the viewer as an agent having been acted upon in the functioning of the film itself Authors were invited to take one of the main themes and creatively consider how film in their experiences has provided opportunities for new modes of thinking Contributors will then engaged one another in a dialogue about the similarities and differences in their descriptions of film as spiritual phenomena. The intended aim of this text is to shift contemporary theological film engagement away from a simple mode of analysis in which theological concepts are simply read into the film itself and begin to let films speak for themselves as profoundly spiritual experiences.

Balancing on the Mechitza Noach Dzmura, 2014-08-19 WINNER 2011 Lambda Literary Award Transgender Non Fiction While the Jewish mainstream still argues about homosexuality transgender and gender variant people have emerged as a distinct Jewish population and as a new chorus of voices. Inspired and nurtured by the successes of the feminist and LGBT movements in the Jewish world Jews who identify with the T now sit in the congregation marry under the chuppah and create Jewish families. Balancing on the Mechitza offers a multifaceted portrait of this increasingly visible community. The contributors activists theologians scholars and other transgender Jews share for the first time in a printed volume their theoretical contemplations as well as rite of passage and other transformative stories. Balancing on the Mechitza introduces readers to a secular transwoman who interviews her Israeli and Palestinian peers and provides cutting edge theory about the construction of Jewish personhood in Israel a transman who serves as legal witness for a man a role not typically open to persons designated female at birth during a conversion ritual a man deprived of testosterone by an illness who comes to identify himself with passion and pride as a Biblical eunuch and a gender variant person who explores how to adapt the masculine and feminine pronouns in Hebrew to reflect a non binary gender reality.

Metzler Film Lexikon Michael Töteberg, 2005-09-20 Grundlegender Überblick zur gesamten internationalen Filmgeschichte anhand 500 ausgewählter Filmklassiker World Film Directors: 1945-1985 John Wakeman, 1987 A two volume biographical critical dictionary of major filmmakers from all countries covering the entire history of the medium from 1890 to the present. Each director is treated in a separate essay that includes a detailed chronological account of the subject's life and work and a summary of critical opinion. Existentialist Cinema W. Pamerleau, 2009-03-31 An exploration of the relationship between cinema and existentialism in terms of their mutual ability to describe the human condition. This book combines analyses of topics in the philosophy of film with an exploration of specific existentialist themes expressed in the films of Fellini Bergman and Woody Allen among others.

Augen-blick, 1985 The Bridge to Nothingness S. Giora Shoham, 1994 In The Bridge to Nothingness author Shlomo Giora Shoham explicates myth as a projection of human experience. Human development dynamics according to Shoham are represented by myths and reflected in religious creeds. Myths constitute projective evidence of the development of psychic processes at early orality; they at once reveal and conceal their psychological content. In this work Shoham deals with ideas that are common to Gnosticism Kabala and existentialism irrespective of their historical interrelationships. He compares the Heideggerian notion of the thrownness of the individual into the world with the Gnostic teaching of the divine descent and incarnation, the incarceration of the divine in objects and life forms. All three ideologies speak of God as the spiritual core of human being.

Union with God is unachievable but one can achieve symbiosis with God and humanness through creativity and revelation. The author's integration of psychology and mythic symbolism is stimulating. The Bridge to Nothingness is filled with deep psychological and spiritual insights. His portrayal of kabalistic thought is perceptive and erudite. He makes use of the latest scholarship and more importantly what he says will contribute to the field and provoke discussion and debate. His sensitivity to the dynamics of mystical experience enables him to see clearly its positive dimension. Very little has been written on the interface between Gnosticism, Kabala and psychology. Shoham's work is original, provocative and insightful. The Bridge to Nothingness will break new ground in these studies and enrich the understanding of psychological and religious symbolism.
