Silence Of Memory Armistice Day 1919 1946:

The Silence of Memory Adrian Gregory, 2014-03-04 This book examines how the British people came to terms with the massive trauma of the First World War Although the literary memory of the war has often been discussed little has been written on the public ceremonies on and around 11 November which dominated the public memory of the war in the inter war years This book aims to remedy the deficiency by showing the pre eminence of Armistice Day both in reflecting what people felt about the war and in shaping their memories of it It shows that this memory was complex rather than simple and that it was continually contested Finally it seeks to examine the impact of the Second World War on the memory of the First and to show how difficult it is to recapture the idealistic assumptions of a world that believed it had experienced the war to end all wars

Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer, Nadia Fadil, Birgitte Schepelern

Johansen,2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its co constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular could become a new possibility
