Silencing The Past:

Silencing the Past Michel-Rolph Trouillot, 1995 Silencing the Past is a thought provoking analysis of historical narrative Taking examples ranging from the Haitian Revolution to Columbus Day Michel Rolph Trouillot demonstrates how power operates often invisibly at all stages in the making of history to silence certain voices Makes the postmodernist debate come alive Choice Trouillot a widely respected scholar of Haitian history is a first rate scholar with provocative ideas Serious students of history should find his work a feast for the mind Jay Freedman Booklist Elegantly written and richly allusive Silencing the Past is an important contribution to the anthropology of history Its most lasting impression is made perhaps by Trouillot s own voice endlessly agile sometimes cuttngly funny but always evocative in a direct and powerful almost poetic way Donald L Donham Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute A sparkling interrogation of the past A beautifully written superior book Foreign Affairs Silencing the Past is a polished personal essay on the meanings of history It is filled with wisdom and humanity Bernard Mergen American Studies International An eloquent book Choice Written with clarity wit and style throughout this book is for everyone interested in historical culture Civilization A beautifully written book exciting in its challenges Eric R Wolf Aphoristic and witty a hard nosed look at the soft edges of public discourse about the past Arjun Appadurai

Historical Memory and Foreign Policy Lina Klymenko, Marco Siddi, 2022-10-13 This book explores the uses of the past in foreign policy making It outlines why and how political leaders refer to historical events in contemporary foreign policy discourses the goals they hope to achieve and the sometimes unintended foreign policy consequences of their ab use of historical memory Furthermore it looks at how political leaders shape domestic collective memories in pursuit of their international agendas and highlight historical events leaders forget reinterpret or obscure through selective narratives The chapters explore a variety of theoretical concepts that shed light on how memory and foreign policy are linked in a complex and reciprocal way The following mechanisms are discussed the application of historical analogies the construction of historical narratives the creation of memory sites the marginalisation and forgetting of the past and the securitisation of historical memory Through the use of a number of methodological approaches such as discourse analysis narrative analysis and content analysis of securitising moves and a broad range of qualitative and quantitative data newspaper articles policy documents commemorative speeches interviews with policymakers and the observation of memory sites the contributions highlight the interdependence of the international national regional and local dimensions of memory practices and history writing Although they mostly focus on national case studies of foreign policy making they also reveal how representations of historical events evolve through interaction between political actors at the international level of analysis The collection originated in the section entitled Exploring the Link between Historical Memory and Foreign Policy at the annual Pan European Conference of the European International Studies Association EISA 2018 held in Prague the Czech Republic
