Silent Day In Tangier:

Silent Day in Tangier Tahar Ben Jelloun, 1991 Mediterranean Encounters in the City Michela Ardizzoni, Valerio Ferme, 2015-12-03 This book documents and analyzes how the contemporary Mediterranean city manages and negotiates its identity as a result of recent reconfigurations in its cultural religious and social landscape The events of Sept 11 2001 have recast difference as a central trope of identification in urban borderland settings unleashing heated debates about cultural convergences and animating anxieties about an arguable clash of civilizations in modern cities These emerging uncertainties have also grown stronger as the homogenizing forces of globalization unsettle essential principles of the nation state and nationhood and render fixed perceptions of distinctive and singular people and cultures more tenuous Recent scholarship and public discourse have accordingly framed discussions of these encounters around concerns of geo political security and international policy Unfortunately framed within these terms our understanding of how various groups within the Mediterranean metropolis deal with the intensification of difference as a lived experience has remained regrettably thin This volume transcends this limitation and explores new interdisciplinary research paradigms that will help us gain a comprehensive perspective on how complex macro and micro tensions contradictions and similarities are negotiated in building urban identities in the Mediterranean basin The contributors to this volume explore the multi faceted nature of Mediterranean cities and engage a critical discussion of identity production and consumption in the Mediterranean basin By spanning two centuries and examining both the Northern and Southern shores of the Mediterranean the chapters in this book provide a broad and comprehensive investigation of the ways in which recent cultural productions have framed and re imagined the Mediterranean city as a locus of departures arrivals and contested belonging By focusing on cinema photography new media magazines music and literature as different stages for the performative representation of Mediterraneity the authors highlight the vibrancy of the intercultural discourses taking place along the shores of the mare nostrum and provide new perspectives from which to explore the relationship between North and South East and West

Tangier Richard Hamilton, 2019-06-27 In this first guide to Tangier s extraordinary cultural history former BBC North Africa correspondent Richard Hamilton explores the city to find out what has inspired so many international writers artists and musicians In Tangier the Moroccan novelist Mohamed Choukri wrote everything is surreal and everything is possible In this intimate portrait Hamilton explores hotels caf s alleyways and the city s darkest secrets Delving down through complex historical layers he finds a frontier town that is comic confounding and haunted by the ghosts of its past Samuel Pepys thought God should destroy Tangier and St Francis of Assisi called it a city of madness and delusions Yet throughout the centuries it has also been a crucible of creativity It was a turning point in Henri Matisse s artistic journey and had a profound impact on the founder of the Rolling Stones Brian Jones Tangier also produced two of the greatest American novels of the twentieth century The Sheltering Sky and Naked Lunch Besides Paul Bowles and William Burroughs the book also looks at
