Regionalization In Africa Integration And Disintegration:

Regionalisation in Africa Daniel Bach, 1999 This text demonstrates that regionalization assumed to have no effect or presence in Africa is alive and well on that continent African Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes James Thuo Gathii, 2011-07-21 African regional trade integration has grown exponentially in the last decade This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the legal framework within which it is being pursued It will fill a huge knowledge gap and serve as an invaluable teaching and research tool for policy makers in the public and private sectors teachers researchers and students of African trade and beyond The author argues that African Regional Trade Agreements RTAs are best understood as flexible legal regimes particularly given their commitment to variable geometry and multiple memberships He analyzes the progress made toward trade liberalization in each region how the RTAs are financed their trade remedy and judicial regimes and how well they measure up to Article XXIV of GATT The book also covers monetary unions as well as intra African regional integration and examines free trade agreements with non African regions including the Economic Partnership Agreements with the European Union The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism Tanja A. Börzel, Thomas Risse, 2016-02-04 The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism the first of its kind offers a systematic and wide ranging survey of the scholarship on regionalism regionalization and regional governance Unpacking the major debates leading authors of the field synthesize the state of the art provide a guide to the comparative study of regionalism and identify future avenues of research Twenty seven chapters review the theoretical and empirical scholarship with regard to the emergence of regionalism the institutional design of regional organizations and issue specific governance as well as the effects of regionalism and its relationship with processes of regionalization The authors explore theories of cooperation integration and diffusion explaining the rise and the different forms of regionalism The handbook also discusses the state of the art on the world regions North America Latin America Europe Eurasia Asia North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa Various chapters survey the literature on regional governance in major issue areas such as security and peace trade and finance environment migration social and gender policies as well as democracy and human rights Finally the handbook engages in cross regional comparisons with regard to institutional design dispute settlement identities and communities legitimacy and democracy as well as inter and transregionalism Regionalization in a Globalizing World Michael Schulz, Fredrik Soderbaum, Joakim Öjendal, 2001-05 The emerging role of regional systems of relations is an important feature of the new global politics While the European Union is the most advanced case most other parts of the world display at least the beginnings of regional systems Using a multidisciplinary approach the contributors examine these processes from a comparative perspective concentrating on the following questions what constitute a region how is the historical process of region formation unfolding what motives and factors underlie this drive to regionalisation what forms a regional awareness and institutionalisation are emerging and where what are the future prospects The New Regionalism in Africa J.

Andrew Grant, Fredrik Söderbaum, 2003 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism

Global Political Economy

John Ravenhill, 2017 Global Political Economy offers a comprehensive introduction to the field by combining theory history and contemporary issues and debates The authors who are all leading international experts introduce readers to the diversity of perspectives in GPE through chapters that combine careful analysis with detailed empirical material New to this edition A rewritten chapter on the Global Trade Regime by Professor Ann Capling and Dr Silke Trommer Increased coverage of the rise of new actors especially the BRICs and the role of developing economies in global governance from back cover

The Politics of Economic Regionalism David Francis, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 The primary objective of this book is to provide an analytical understanding of the nature dynamics and complexity of the politics of economic regionalism through the prism of Sierra Leone in the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS The book also discusses the following issues the evolution of economic regionalism in West Africa and the conceptual framework for analysis the expansion of the economic regionalism developments within the West Africa sub region with that of the transformation of the global economy and international political system political economic and security developments within ECOWAS and the civil war in Sierra Leone

Transfrontier Regionalism. The Revival of Regional Integration in Africa A.I. Asiwaju, 1999 The views and perspectives adopted by A I Asiwaju and D Bach appear sufficiently distinct yet they converge on several key issues i e the informal achievement of regionalization in Africa through kinship and other non state networks the resistance of Africans to boundaries inherited from the colonial period and the consequences of the arbitrariness of these boundaries Anyone who has ever crossed the Seme border between the Federal Republic of Nigeria and the Republic of Benin cannot but subscribe to the perceptions shared by the two authors Whatever the purpose of the trip travellers crossing the border share the experience of being in a lawless area the occasional traveller who behaves suspiciously will immediately attract the attention of the immigration officer who begins to search through his papers scrupulously looking for any error on the other hand the market woman who knows the system crosses with ease The popularization of these border scenes by novels and video productions is significant evidence of the intensity of transborder movements in West Africa and of the constraints as well as the resources offered by the borders This dual reality of what appears as an obstacle to the implementation of institutionalized regional integration schemes and as the booster of an informal market driven trade flow is widely documented and discussed in the two papers      Theory, Change and Southern Africa P. Vale, L. Swatuk, B. Oden, 2001-06-26

As dramatic changes unfold throughout the world and the new millennium begins many in South Africa have begun to ask what next The scale and pace of change have led to a feeling of powerlessness How to cope with globalization regionalization a depleting ozone layer new diseases rampant militarization let alone unseen structures of influence and oppression like race class and gender While there is no shortage of theoretical models on offer many feel that they are inadequate for the case of Southern Africa In this book scholars of both international relations and Southern Africa present a wide variety of thoughts on the future of the region and the place of theory in helping us to understand the bewildering array of events characterizing the late modern early twenty first century world This book marks a call to theory if Southern Africans are to overcome the divisive legacy of the past and to move toward a more prosperous and sustainable collective future theory must be placed at the centre of everyday life For it is our understanding of the world that shapes both it and us      Deepening Regional Integration of the East African Community Ahmed Mohiddin, 2005      African administrative studies, 2009

Issues for 1966 include sections A Studies B Documents and monographs C News of institutes and schools of administration D Bibliographical notes      The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert Dibia, 2001-11-06 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations      Nigerian Federalism in Crisis Ebere Onwudiwe, Rotimi T. Suberu, 2005      Security Cooperation in Africa Benedikt Franke, 2009 Benedikt Franke assesses the peace and security architecture that is taking shape under the nominal leadership of the African Union analysing the emerging structures and trends and also rethinking prevailing notions and theoretical assumptions about interstate security relations      Comparativ, 2007      African and Asian Studies, 2003      Regional Economic Cooperation and Integration Sonu Trivedi, 2005

ABOUT THE BOOK Prompted by the uncertain outcome of the GATT Uruguay Round negotiations regional agreements mushroomed in different parts of the world The collapse of the Soviet Union gave a renewed impulse to economic interactions at the expense of political and strategic preoccupations Inter regional co operation reduces economic and social fragmentation created by national frontiers and hence facilitates integrated development of participating states In Africa as in other parts of the world regional co operation is a major factor in internal and international politics This book focuses on the regional co operation efforts in the three continents of the world viz Africa Asia and Europe and their role in promoting and strengthening African Capacities It examines various dimensions of regional co operation with focus on bilateral relations between a community of highly developed states European Union and a group of developing countries viz COMESA Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa The latter part of the book focuses on inter regional co operation between South Asian countries particularly India and COMESA These two regions of the world share a common colonial legacy and are striving to improve the socio economic conditions of their people Inter regional cooperation and integration is a vital necessity in a world witnessing trade liberalisation foreign investments and reduced role of governments in economic affairs

Demilitarizing the Mind Alexander De Waal,2002      The Congo Wars Doctor Thomas Turner,2007-04-01 Since 1996 war has raged in the Congo while the world has looked away Waves of armed conflict and atrocities against civilians have resulted in over three million casualties making this one of the bloodiest yet least understood conflicts of recent times In The Congo Wars Thomas Turner provides the first in depth analysis of what happened The book describes a resource rich region suffering from years of deprivation and still profoundly affected by the shockwaves of the Rwandan genocide Turner looks at successive misguided and self interested interventions by other African powers including Uganda Angola Zimbabwe and Namibia as well as the impotence of United Nations troops Cutting through the historical myths so often used to understand the devastation Turner indicates the changes required of Congolese leaders neighbouring African states and the international community to bring about lasting peace and security
