Divine Transcription of European History as Accident in Ignas Šeinius' Satirical Novel *Rejuvenation of Siegfried Immerselbe

Abstract

The article based on the comparative principle seeks to introduce to a wide audience the unique novel by Lithuanian writer Ignas Šeinius Rejuvenation of Siegfried Immerselbe (1934), which mocks the ideology of the Third Reich. Its intertextuality fascinates – the story involves many popular “wandering plots” known in literature and myths. Šeinius goes into a dispute with the tradition of science fiction, argues with it and expands it by offering unexpected solutions. At the same time, the work raises global ideas, contemplates the course of human history and discusses its alternatives. The conclusion is that the novel has received too little attention and evaluation, which have resulted in its belated translation into English.

Keywords: Lithuanian literature; intertextuality; science fiction; Nazi ideology

Résumé

La correction divine de l'histoire d'Europe, considérée comme le hasard dans le roman satyrique d'Ignas Šeinius Le Rajeunissement de Siegfried Immerselbe

Cet article basé sur le principe comparatif cherche à présenter à un large public le roman unique de l'écrivain lituanien Ignas Šeinius Le rajeunissement de Siegfried Immerselbe (1934), qui se moque de l'idéologie du troisième Reich. Son intertextualité fascine - l'histoire comprend de nombreuses «intrigues errantes» populaires connues dans la littérature et les mythes. Šeinius se dispute avec la tradition de la science-fiction, la conteste et l'élargit en proposant des solutions inattendues. Dans le même temps, le travail soulève des idées globales, examine le cours de l'histoire humaine et discute de ses alternatives. La conclusion est que le roman a reçu trop peu d'attention et d'évaluation pour une traduction tardive en anglais.

Mots-clés : littérature lituanienne ; intertextualité ; science-fiction ; idéologie nazie

Introduction

Goethe's Faust and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein or, The Modern Prometheus, both written in the 3rd decade of the 19th century, have developed old myths of humankind and have inspired the modern European literature to reconsider the human spiritual and physical youth and immortality. In his novel Rejuvenation of Siegfried Immerselbe (1934) Lithuanian writer Ignas Šeinius engages in a fantastic literary game, rethinking and parodying the “eternal” themes in the epoch when the Nazis come to power in Germany declaring their goals to change the World and create a new perfect man. Therefore, Šeinius' novel was actual and brave in its satiric style. It was also very insightful. In the comparative perspective, the novel evolves interactive communication developing intriguing controversy with the tradition of European scientific fantasy literature.

Rejuvenation of Siegfried Immerselbe Ignas Šeinius, 1965 Rejuvenation of Siegfried Immerselbe Ignas Seinius, 1956 The Vanished World of Lithuanian Jews Alvydas Nikžentaitis, Stefan Schreiner, Darius Staliūnas, 2004

The Lithuanian Jews Litvaks played an important and unique role not only within the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth but in a wider context of Jewish life and culture in Eastern Europe too. The changing world around them at the end of the nineteenth century and during the first decades of the twentieth had a profound impact not only on the Jewish communities but also on a parallel world of the others that is those who lived with them side by side. Exploring and demonstrating this development from various angles is one of the themes and objectives of this book. Another is the analysis of the Shoah which ended the centuries of Jewish culture in Lithuania: a world of its own had vanished within months. This book therefore recalls that vanished world. In doing so it sheds new light on what has been lost. The papers presented in this collection were delivered at the international conferences in Nida 1997 and Telsiai 2001. Lithuania. Participants came from Israel, the USA, Great Britain, Poland, Russia, Belarus, Germany and Lithuania.

Imagology Profiles Laura Laurušaitė, 2018-07-27. This volume highlights the importance of imagology, one of the most popular areas of research in contemporary comparative studies. It proposes new means of academic analysis to create critical attitudes towards the development of imagological studies. The topics discussed draw a wide trajectory from classical to marginal images from national heroes to unconventional aspects of gender from ethno-imagology to the broader dimension of intercultural references and epistemological post-structuralist changes. The compendium widens the field of imagology by introducing concepts such as geo-imagology and imagology of gender and by linking the imagological strategy with the power principle developed by post-colonialism and with the fictional project of an imaginary utopian society. The essays selected include case studies focusing on the works of individual authors as well as broader insights concentrating on regional, national and transnational identities that experienced a change of imagery due to historical, political and social shifts. The book pays particular attention to the aspects of mobile imagery, the emergence of peripheral identities related to gender, class, ethnicity or race and the detection and assessment of well-established stereotypes. The scope of the topics discussed and the variety of periods covered imply the universal nature and versatile applicability of literary imagology.

Historical Dictionary of Lithuania Saulius A. Suziedelis, 2011-02-07. The Lithuanian people have undergone historic changes quite different from those of other European nations. In earlier centuries, geography provided strategic advantage and opportunities for expansion, but in recent times the country has more often experienced location as a geopolitical curse. After constantly losing territory and shrinking in size, the country disappeared in 1795. However, after World War I a popular national movement led to the restoration of Lithuania as an independent state World War II and its bloody aftermath brought foreign occupation as well as genocide mass murder and destruction unparalleled in the country's modern history The restoration of independence in 1990 has fundamentally altered Lithuania's geopolitical reality Integration into the European Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization promise a new level of security for the Lithuanian state in the 21st century even as the social and economic transformations present both promising opportunities and difficult challenges The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lithuania will serve as a useful introduction to virtually all aspects of Lithuania's historical experience including the country's relations with its neighbors This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets The New York Times Book Review ,1965 JEAN MAUCLERE AND LITHUANIA.
