Regional Integrations In The New World Economic Environment:

Regional Integrations in the New World Economic Environment András Inotai, 1986 Regional Integration Among Developing Countries, Revisited András Inotai, 1991 The formation of new powerful economic and trading blocs and the transition to market economies in Central and perhaps Eastern Europe has fostered a trend toward new regionalism in the world economy which the virtual failure of the GATT negotiations may speed up To minimize economic losses and avoid marginalization regional groups of developing countries must increasingly work out common positions and join one of the influential groups The Arab Maghreb Union Mr. Mohamad Ali Finaish, Eric Bell, 1994-05-01 The Founding Treaty of the Arab Maghreb Union AMU signed in February 1989 calls for a strengthening of all ties among its member states Algeria Libya Mauritania Morocco and Tunisia including a gradual move toward free circulation of goods services and factors of production among them The paper provides an overview of the economic conditions in the AMU member countries describes the institutional arrangements under the AMU and assesses the progress made in attaining the economic objectives of the Treaty In so doing the paper identifies the main obstacles encountered in making progress toward the objectives of the Treaty and reviews actions that need to be taken to make further progress in the coming years In that context the paper also examines the relationship of the AMU countries with the European Union EU Asia-Pacific in the New World Order Christopher Brook, Anthony McGrew, 2013-11-05 Asia Pacific in the New World Order critically explores the notion that a distinctive regional power bloc is developing linking countries bordering the Pacific with East Asia at its core This student friendly volume sheds light on the complex interplay between global regional and national forces which have transformed the Asia Pacific area into one of the most vibrant and economically successful regions in the world Historical narratives alongside geopolitical and geoeconomic perspectives are deployed to examine the shifting pattern of power relations and security structures across the region set within a wider world context Key issues addressed include what are the primary security problems of the region and how are they being resolved does the dynamic growth of the region and particularly the rise of China pose a challenge to existing structures of world order The text has a strong interdisciplinary flavour drawing on analytical approaches from the international relations political economy and political geography literature Authors have been drawn from the Asia Pacific region and the UK and all are established scholars in their specialist fields At the Crossroads of Development Behar, Cuzán, 2021-11-01 The 10 articles assembled in this volume examine old problems and new opportunities in development that are associated with trade communication population distribution and migration culture and institutions They explore possibilities for and obstacles to technological and institutional transfers between developed and developing societies at a time when capitalism and democracy appear triumphant Points of convergence parallel processes and equivalences in social problems and potential solutions across levels of development are noted They point out that the hierarchy of the world economic system and indigenous cultures militate against the homogenization of the
