Relaxation For Christians:

Relaxation for Christians H. Newton Malony, Jean Hattem, 1992 Committed Christians striving to live up to their own high standards and struggling to do God's work often neglect their own physical and mental well being But the author reminds those who equate relaxation with idleness that taking time to relax may be an act of faith in God and His power to keep things rolling for a few minutes without your help RELAXATION FOR CHRISTIANS features easy effective exercises for reducing physical stress and equally effective mental exercises designed to slow your racing mind All work together to reduce your vulnerability to mental and physical distress and give you new energy to press on toward your goals Most important the lessons of this little book will help you make your body a fit temple for the Holy Spirit Read it and share it with everyone you love

Christian Meditation Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1989-01-01 When it comes to meditation the decisive question according to Hans Urs von Balthasar is whether God has spoken or whether the Absolute remains the Silence beyond all words Christianity claims God has spoken and spoken fully in his Son the Word made flesh While God remains mysterious he is not utterly unknown or unknowable Von Balthasar insists through Christian meditation we enter with mind and heart into God's self disclosure In Jesus God reveals his own inner depths to us At the same time because Jesus is God made man he also reveals our inner depths to ourselves Christian Meditation is at once a book about what meditation is in light of God's revelation and a book that assists believers to meditate In a treatment that is both fresh and profound von Balthasar describes the central elements of all Christian meditation provides a guide for meditation and then points the way to the union that prayer achieves in the footsteps of Mary within the Church and in and for the world Christian meditation is entirely trinitarian and at the same time entirely human In order to find God no one need reject being human personally or socially but in order to find God all must see the world and themselves in the Holy Spirit as they are in God's sight Hans Urs von Balthasar

Zen Meditation for Christians Hugo Makibi Enomiya-Lassalle, 1974 Christ Inviting Sinners to Come to Him for Rest Jeremiah Burroughs, C. Matthew McMahon, 2017-10-04 Every now and again a work will be published by a reformer or puritan that Christians find to be of such great spiritual worth that it is hard to put into words the incalculable and infinite good that such a work is to the Christian soul This book friends is one of those works Burroughs expounds Matthew 11:28 Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest Christ invites sinners to come to Him for rest Sinners in this way can be either Christians or unbelievers Both are beckoned to come In this work Burroughs shows first the burden of sin the burden of the Law the burden of legal performances with the misery of those that are under them the burden of corruption and the burden of outward affliction Secondly he shows that Christ graciously offers to them that come to him rest from all those burdens In this he demonstrates what it is to come to Christ that Christ requires nothing but to come to him Several Rules to be observed in right coming to Christ the means to draw souls to Christ that in coming to Christ God would have us have respect toward ourselves that there is no rest for souls out of Christ and the reasons for this with some conclusions from it Thirdly Burroughs shows the rest believers have from sin that the deliverance from the Law by Christ is privatively and positively He will show the rest believers have from the burden of the Law by coming to Christ how Christ gives rest from the burden of legal performances how Christ gives rest from the burden of corruption in which is shown how sanctification and holiness comes only from Christ And Burroughs demonstrates encouragements to come to Christ for holiness He will explain how Christ gives rest from outward afflictions and then considers some directions on how to get rest from Christ in spiritual desertions God s people have been personally helped by Burroughs throughout the centuries by all his works and in this volume on coming to Christ he again shows the inestimable spiritual value of his preaching and writing This is a life transforming work which will enable Christians to inwardly examine themselves as they consider how the Law of God correlates to their abiding in the Lord Jesus and what steps they must take to come to Christ in a saving and sanctifying manner This work is not a scan or facsimile has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern English and has an active table of contents for electronic versions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia

Commentary on the New Testament Robert H. Gundry, 2010-07-01 Verse by verse explanations with a literal translation Shouldn't a Bible commentary clarify what God's Word actually says Going beyond questions of authorship date sources and historicity respected linguist and teacher Gundry offers a one volume exposition of the New Testament that focuses on what is most useful for preaching teaching and individual study what the biblical text really means Providing interpretive observations in a breezy style that's easy to read and adaptable for oral use in pulpit or classroom presentations Gundry directs his book to an evangelical audience His crisp translation of the New Testament inserts various phrasings of passages in brackets allowing for smooth transition from original text to alternative and contemporary readings SAMPLE TEXT OF TRANSLATION JOHN'S PREDICTING A MORE POWERFUL BAPTIZER THAN HE Mark 1:18-1:3 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ God's Son according as it's written in Isaiah the prophet Behold I'm sending my messenger before your face ahead of you who'll pave your way the road you'll travel the messenger who is the voice of one crying out in the wilderness Prepare the way of the Lord Make his paths straight Pastors Sunday school teachers small group leaders and laypeople will welcome Gundry's non technical explanations and clarifications And Bible students at all levels will appreciate his sparkling interpretations of the NT Scriptures A trustworthy guide for anybody wanting to delve deeper into God's Word SAMPLE TEXT OF COMMENTS Gospel means good news Jews would associate this good news with Isaiah 52:7 Non Jews would think of the good news of an emperor's accession to power birthday visit to a city military victory or bringing of prosperity to the empire But Mark's good news has to do with the salvation and victory brought by Jesus over evil in all its demonic and physical forms The gospel of Jesus Christ therefore means the gospel about Jesus Christ and refers to a proclaimed message the voice of one crying out not a book though because books like Mark's contain that proclaimed message the term came to refer to those books in the capitalized form of Gospels to distinguish them from the message kept uncapitalized as gospel
