Statistical Thinking and Learning Brian Greer,2000 Devoted to statistical thinking and learning this special double issue reflects major developments within statistics education During recent years statistics has entered or gained increased prominence in mainstream mathematics curricula in many countries Some aspects of the relationship between statistics education and mathematics education in general are illustrated as is the crucial role of statistical education for responsible citizenship in modern society The articles provide analyses of the development of children s statistical thinking discuss statistical thinking at a higher and more technical level and illustrate the issues central to the development of statistical education Journal for Research in Mathematics Education ,2013 Mathematics Pedagogy in a Developing Nation Richard Stanley Kitchen,1996 Designing and Using Mathematical Tasks John Mason,Sue Johnston-Wilder,2006 Does being able to do mathematics mean being competent at techniques and understanding how ideas and techniques fit together By being given appropriate tasks learners develop their powers to think mathematically and learn to appreciate how ideas fit together Education Teaching Political Dimensions of Mathematics Education 2 Cyril Julie,1993 Mentoring the Mentor Paulo Freire,1997 Mentoring the Mentor recreates a Freirian dialogue in a printed format In this volume sixteen distinguished scholars engage in a critical and thoughtful exchange with Paulo Freire While some contributors voice appreciation for Freire s ideas and for what it means to reinvent Freire in a North American context others offer sharp critiques of Freire s philosophy and of equal importance of the various interpretations of his work A variety of chapters describe specific uses which have been made of Freire s ideas in diverse educational contexts from the New York City public schools to the revolutions in Guinea Bissau and Eritrea Finally Paulo Freire himself responds to the major issues which are raised in the volume and invites readers to share in a continuing lively dialogue about the meaning of democratic and revolutionary education The fundamental task of the mentor is a liberatory task It is not to encourage the mentor s goals and aspirations and dreams to be reproduced in the mentees the students but to give rise to the possibility that the students become the owners of their own history This is how I understand the need that teachers have to transcend their merely instructive task and to assume the ethical posture of a mentor who truly believes in the total autonomy freedom and development of those he or she mentors from Chapter Sixteen A Response by Paulo Freire
