Stump, Alan G. Padgett, 2012-03-12 A cutting edge survey of contemporary thought at the intersection of science and Christianity Provides a cutting edge survey of the central ideas at play at the intersection of science and Christianity through 54 original articles by world leading scholars and rising stars in the discipline Focuses on Christianity's interaction with Science to offer a fine grained analysis of issues such as multiverse theories in cosmology convergence in evolution Intelligent Design natural theology human consciousness artificial intelligence free will miracles and the Trinity amongst many others Addresses major historical developments in the relationship between science and Christianity including Christian patristics the scientific revolution the reception of Darwin and twentieth century fundamentalism Divided into 9 Parts Historical Episodes Methodology Natural Theology Cosmology Evolution The Human Sciences Christian Bioethics Metaphysical Implications The Mind Theology and Significant Figures of the 20th Century Includes diverse perspectives and broadens the conversation from the Anglocentric tradition Analytic Philosophy of Religion James Franklin Harris, 2013-03-14 When Gene Long editor of Kluwer's Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Series first invited me to write the volume on Analytic Philosophy of Religion I accepted with great enthusiasm My only explanation for that enthusiasm now is that I was younger and more naive at the time Soon after starting work on the volume my enthusiasm was dampened by the daunting magnitude of the task I began as a sprinter and quickly settled into the pace of a long distance runner Although I considered myself well read in the subject I soon discovered that I had a great deal of research to do to be confident that I had considered all of the major contributions to the various discussions issues and of religion As I read more and more problems found within analytic philosophy books and articles I realized that I had rushed into a territory already well trodden by the angels I am greatly impressed by the sophistication and subtlety of philosophical argument that characterize the different debates in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion This volume covers a vast amount of material I have endeavored to provide the fairest possible reading of different authors and in cases where I include my own critical evaluations and develop my own positions I have endeavored to provide the strongest possible interpretations of the positions I criticize The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 The last two decades have seen the emergence of a new field of academic study that examines the interaction between religion and ecology Theologians from every religious tradition have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature and acknowledged their own faiths complicity in the environmental crisis Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the books essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part one will explore traditional religious concepts of and attitudes towards nature and how these have been changed by the environmental crisis Part II looks at larger conceptual issues that transcend individual traditions Part III will examine religious participation in environmental politics

Christian Faith and the Environment Brennan R. Hill, 2007-03-16 Although the environmental crisis has been recognized as an international threat Christian attempts to reconcile their religious traditions and the earth are just beginning Christian Faith and the Environment challenges churches to take a stand for environmental concerns Hill explores how twentieth century theologians such as Karl Rahner Bernard Lonergan and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin have taught Christians to build bridges between Christianity and creation Examining sacramental rites church documents and feminist theological insights on ecology Hill outlines a Christian environmental spirituality and traces the ethical challenges posed by our new awareness of our environment
