Pioneer Pencil Dust Paul Croy, 1985 NORTHWEST Best of Covered Wagon Women Kenneth L. Holmes, 2011-11-28
The diaries and letters of women who braved the overland trails during the great nineteenth century westward migration are treasured documents in the study of the American West. These eight firsthand accounts are among the best ever written. They were selected for the power with which they portray the hardship, adventure, and boundless love for friends and family that characterized the overland experience. Some were written with the skilled pens of educated women. Others bear the marks of crude cabin learning with archaic and imaginative spelling and a simplicity of expression. All convey the profound effect the westward trek had on these women. For too long these diaries and letters were secreted away in attics and basements or collected dust on the shelves of manuscript collections across the country. Their publication gives us a fresh perspective on the pioneer experience. Wagon Wheel Kitchens Jacqueline B. Williams, 1993 Re-creates the highs and lows of cooking and eating on the Oregon Trail Pioneer Reminiscences Mildred Cass Beason, 1986 Instructor, 1956 The View from the Ground Martha Gellhorn, 2014-12-09 An anthology spanning six decades of on-the-scene journalism from one of the most eloquent witnesses of the twentieth century. Bill Buford Granta. For nearly sixty years Martha Gellhorn traveled the globe to report on the tumult and extremity of life in the twentieth century. The View from the Ground as Gellhorn explains is a selection of articles written during six decades of peace time reporting. That is to say the countries in the background were at peace at the moment of writing, not that there was peace on earth. Included here are accounts of America during the Depression, Israel and Palestine in the 1950s, post-Franco Spain, protests at the White House, domestic life in Africa, and Gellhorn's return to Cuba after a forty-one year absence, among many other topics. Informed by the horrors of fascism in Spain and Germany, the modern terror in Central America, and by the courage of those who stand up to the thugs both in and out of government, The View from the Ground is a singular act of testimony that like its companion volume The Face of War is an eloquent, unforgettable history of a chaotic century. THOMAS, II, BSEE, P.E., 2008-08-22 The author's pioneer ancestors were early settlers in the western movement, sometimes trekking roughly cleared pathways behind teams of oxen. Family meetings and marriages at New Ipswich NH, Watervliet NY, New Castle KY, Richmond IN, Old Oxford IL, Mt Pleasant IW, Firth NE, and Denver CO form the basis of this historical and genealogy story. Family chronicles, deeds, wills, census records, tombstones, and written biological sketches form the basis for this book. Research was conducted in 87 counties in 22 states from Maine to Colorado and also Wales, Scotland, and England over a 16 year period. American Motorcyclist, 1957-12 American Motorcyclist magazine, the official journal of the American
