First houses Housekeeping Food Shopping Children School of the Air Women s work outside the house Other nationalities Flying Doctor Isolation Special occasions Great Bush Stories Graham Seal,2018-10-24 Tales from life on the land and outback adventures continue to intrigue puzzle and entertain us This collection is Graham Seal at his best Graham Seal has the knack of the storyteller Warren Fahey AM The tradition of yarns from the bush goes back to the earliest days in Australia Colourful rural characters and dramatic incidents parade through our history and folklore entertaining and appalling us in equal measure Graham Seal has gathered classic and little known stories from when most Australians lived outside the cities and communication was by dirt track or boat There s the time when farmers used their Ferguson tractors to save a town from floodwaters when soldiers took on mobs of emus devastating the wheat crop the Lady Bushranger who lived rough in a cave Bob the railway dog who hitched rides on trains for years and the many dubious strategies devised against the pesky bush fly over the years True or more than a little exaggerated these stories reflect the distinctive way of life of rural and outback folk which continues to this day Women's life and suffering in the Australian Bush. Challenging bush romanticism and the bushman myth in Barbara Baynton's "Bush Studies" Nicole Eismann,2016-03-30 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 University of Bonn Institut f r Anglistik Amerikanistik und Keltologie course Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures Theories Histories Selected Texts language English abstract This paper discusses the question in how far Barbara Baynton challenges bush romanticism and the legendary bushman myth by playing with gender roles and stereotypes with a strong focus on the real hard bush life of women After a theoretical introduction to the whole topic the realistic depiction of the bush itself as well as the bushwomen and the interaction between both are discussed in Chapter 2 Thereafter Chapter 3 focusses on the social factors of bush life on how Baynton describes the relationship between men and women in the bush and how all this influences the female bush inhabitants The analysis is based on an online version of Bush Studies from 1997 The Australian bush a mythical and fascinating space that has been the setting of many films and all kinds of literature and which is an interesting field for literary scholars especially from the late 19th century the time of national writing onwards During this time the outback used to be described as a hostile but also romantic environment loved and feared by the people who lived there People who were perfectly assimilated and happy with their lives in the bush The legendary bushman myth was born a myth that described the outward appearance and character of the typical Australian bushman explaining why he adapted so properly to the hard environment All these stories including the origin of the bushman myth itself were however made up and written down by male authors who did not intend to include important female characters to their stories The typical bushman was simply a man Women and their lives in the bush did not play a big role in the literature of that time One of the few female writers who focused on the harshness of bush life especially for women was Barbara Baynton She is said to depict the real bush life of pioneer women at the end of the 19th century instead of presenting a romantic male centered myth After Baynton s first published short story The Chosen Vessel had appeared in the national paper The Sydney Bulletin under the title The Tramp the author was unable to find a publisher in Sydney for a collection of several short stories It was said that she being a female writer does not know how to control her emotions which was claimed to be obvious in her writing In the end this collection was published far away from Australia in London under the title Bush Studies Australian National Bibliography ,1978 The Australian Legend and Its Discontents Richard Nile,2000 The Australian Legend and Its Discontentsexplores the narrative construction of Australia and those storylines preferred by Australians when describing themselves and their nation How do Australians figure in literature film and television the visual arts and daily conversation As an introductory reader The Australian Legend and Its Discontentsis an indispensable tool for students and all those with a general interest in the nation and its people The book is complemented by electronic study and other notes for those who wish to explore further the issues of what it is to be Australian apinetwork com Who's who in Australia ,2007 Pilgrimage Mary Durack,2000 With vivid and passionate descriptions of her beloved outback Mary Durack brings alive the spirit of our country and those who have shaped it Pilgrimage is an unforgettable journey through the vibrant landscape and life of Mary Durack from her early writings in the 1930s through to the mid 1980s Though best known for two family histories that have become literary classics Kings in Grass Castles and Sons in the Saddle Mary Durack s great talent extended to fiction short stories drama and verse This long awaited collection of her favourite works including material never before published provides a rare glimpse into Mary s extraordinary experiences from her Kimberley days on the family properties and her time with her own family in Broome to her city home in Perth Mary writes with insight compassion and humour of outback legends and the many bush characters whom she knew and loved of their far reaching wisdom and struggle to adapt to a changing land Pilgrimage is an enduring record of a way of life that is fast disappearing and a testament to an exceptional writer In the early 90s before her death Mary started work on this collection and in fact drafted a proposed introduction Mary s thoughts have been respected by her daughter Patsy who along with Patsy s daughter Naomi has continued this project but Patsy has also included a few more controversial pieces that her mother might have left out The pieces include the oft anthologised 3 000 word chapter known as Promised Land from Kings in Grass Castles and a celebrated chapter from her recently reissued novel Keep Him My Country An added bonus is the inclusion of a complete bibliography of Mary s work as well as a number of her poems which will be of interest to Durack scholars and fans This volume will appeal to lovers of Australiana the Kimberley the Durack saga and Mary s writing Inevitably she touches on the respect and compassion she has for aboriginal culture and her belief in aboriginal land rights an aspect which gives added interest today The writings are also a great snapshot of a former time

Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 Yu Ouyang, 2008 The first Chinese in Australia are said to have arrived as early as 1818 and since then many more have made Australia their homeland the current Chinese population is over half a million It is therefore not surprising that the Chinese are featured in many Australian literary works This book examines the representation of the Chinese in Australian fiction from 1888 to 1988 with an Author Commentary at the end that provides a brief update on the subsequent fictional representations of the Chinese It begins with an overview of the Chinese in Australian and Chinese history followed by a theoretical examination of how the Chinese are made the Other by Orientalism racism and ethnocentrism It discusses literary texts written over a period of one hundred years from 1888 to 1988 The study is divided into three major periods of 1888 1901 1902 1949 and 1950 1988 The first period 1888 1901 deals with the initial attempts to represent the Chinese in fiction as the bad Other by the early Bulletin writers the Australian responses to the rise of the fear of the Yellow Peril in invasion literature and the imperialist will to power over the Chinese in writings set in China by Anglo Australian writers Apart from pursuing the issue of the continued fear and stereotyping of the Chinese in popular writing the second period 1902 1949 introduces a new phenomenon of literary Sinophilism that dichotomizes the representation of the Chinese and examines the image of Chinese women The third period 1950 1988 focuses on the problem of politicisation that polarizes literary attitudes towards the Chinese and discusses Australia s Asian writing as an extension of colonial writing that continues to Other the Chinese and explores multicultural writing as an alternative means of representation This is an important book that illustrates how the Other is represented and will be a valuable book for those in Australian studies Asian studies and literary studies

Remembered Gardens Holly Kerr Forsyth, 2006 Presents the story of Elizabeth Edna and six other women whose passions for their gardens and for garden making have shaped our relationship with the Australian landscape Through personal records and public archives the author brings to life these women s experiences
