Pirate Queen The Life Of Grace Omalley 15301603:

Pirate Nests and the Rise of the British Empire, 1570-1740 Mark G. Hanna, 2015-10-22 Analyzing the rise and subsequent fall of international piracy from the perspective of colonial hinterlands Mark G Hanna explores the often overt support of sea marauders in maritime communities from the inception of England's burgeoning empire in the 1570s to its administrative consolidation by the 1740s Although traditionally depicted as swashbuckling adventurers on the high seas pirates played a crucial role on land Far from a hindrance to trade their enterprises contributed to commercial development and to the economic infrastructure of port towns English piracy and unregulated privateering flourished in the Pacific the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean because of merchant elites active support in the North American colonies Sea marauders represented a real as well as a symbolic challenge to legal and commercial policies formulated by distant and ineffectual administrative bodies that undermined the financial prosperity and defense of the colonies Departing from previous understandings of deep sea marauding this study reveals the full scope of pirates activities in relation to the landed communities that they serviced and their impact on patterns of development that formed early America and the British Empire

Women, Writing, and Language in Early Modern Ireland Marie-Louise Coolahan, 2010-01-28 This book examines writing in English Irish and Spanish by women living in Ireland and by Irish women living on the continent between the years 1574 and 1676 This was a tumultuous period of political religious and linguistic contestation that encompassed the key power struggles of early modern Ireland This study brings to light the ways in which women contributed they strove to be heard and to make sense of their situations forging space for their voices in complex ways and engaging with native and new language traditions The book investigates the genres in which women wrote poetry nuns writing petition letters depositions biography and autobiography It argues for a complex understanding of authorial agency that centres of the act of creating or composing a text which does not necessarily equate with the physical act of writing The Irish English and European contexts for women's production of texts are identified and assessed The literary traditions and languages of the different communities living on the island are juxtaposed in order to show how identities were shaped and defined in relation to each other Marie Louise Coolahan elucidates the social political and economic imperatives for women's writing examines the ways in which women characterized female composition and describes an extensive range of cross cultural multilingual activity
