The Bodleys telling stories, by the author of 'Doings of the Bodley family in town and country'. Horace Elisha Scudder,1881 Great Pirate Stories Joseph Lewis French, Great Pirate Stories Joseph Lewis French,1929-01-01 She was a large shallow vessel coppered to the bends of great breadth of beam with bright sides like an American so painted as to give her a clumsy mercantile sheen externally but there were many things that belied this to a nautical eye her copper for instance was bright as burnished gold on her very sharp bows and beautiful run and we could see from the bastion where we stood that her decks were flush and level She had no cannon mounted that were visible but we distinguished grooves on her well scrubbed decks as from the recent traversing of carronade slides while the bolts and rings in her high and solid bulwarks shone clear and bright in the ardent noontide There was a tarpaulin stretched over a quantity of rubbish old sails old junk and hencoops rather ostentatiously piled up forward which we conjectured might conceal a long gun She was a very taught rigged hermaphrodite or brig forward and schooner aft Her foremast and bowsprit were immensely strong and heavy and her mainmast was so long and tapering that the wonder was how the few shrouds and stays about it could support it it was the handsomest stick we had ever seen Her upper spars were on the same scale tapering away through topmast topgallant mast royal and skysail masts until they fined away into slender wands The sails that were loose to dry were old and patched and evidently displayed to cloak the character of the vessel by an ostentatious show of their unserviceable condition but her rigging was beautifully fitted every rope lying in the chafe of another being carefully served with hide There were several large bushy whiskered fellows lounging about the deck with their hair gathered into dirty net bags like the fishermen of Barcelona many had red silk sashes round their waists through which were stuck their long knives in shark skin sheaths Their numbers were not so great as to excite suspicion but a certain daring reckless manner would at once have distinguished them independently of anything else from the quiet hard worked red shirted merchant seaman Roach & Co. - Pirates and Other Stories Hector Fuller,1912 True Stories of
