H. Downing, John Derek Hall Downing, 2011 Engaging all communication media this one volume encyclopedia includes around 250 essays on the varied experiences of social movement media internationally in the 20th and 21st centuries Broadcasting/cable and Beyond Joseph R. Dominick, Barry L. Sherman, Gary Copeland, 1993 The Independent Film & Video Monthly, 2000 The Pirate's Dilemma Matt Mason, 2008-01-08 An award winning music journalist explores the ways that youth culture and rapidly evolving technology are working together to breed innovation and

explosively transform mainstream society      Ethereal Shadows Franco Berardi, Marco Jacquemet, Gianfranco Vitali, 2009
Focusing on the recent Italian videocracy this book documents the emergence of the first Italian media mogul Silvio Berlusconi and his rise to and recent fall from political power It also explores Italian media activism through three case studies a discussion of the first autonomous free radio station Radio Alice which broadcasted in Bologna between 1977 and 1979 a review of Italian Internet activism focusing on a political site Rekombinant.org created in 2000 and finally a chronicle of the emergence in 2002 of OrfeoTV the first Italian example of an illegal micro TV station      Africa, 2003 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books      Billboard, 1997-09-06 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends      Release Print, 1995      A Social History of Contemporary Democratic Media Jesse Drew, 2013-05-02 The last few decades have helped dispel the myth that media should remain driven by high end professionals and market share This book puts forward the concept of communications from below in contrast to the globalization from above that characterizes many new developments in international organization and media practices By examining the social and technological roots that influence current media evolution Drew allows readers to understand not only the Youtubes and Facebooks of today but to anticipate the trajectory of the technologies to come Beginning with a look at the inherent weaknesses of the U.S. broadcasting model of mass media Drew outlines the early 1960s and 1970s experiments in grassroots media where artists and activists began to re-engineer electronic technologies to target local communities and underserved audiences From these local projects emerged national and international communications projects creating production models social networks and citizen expectations that would challenge traditional means of electronic media and cultural production Drew's perspective puts the social and cultural use of the user at the center not the particular media form Thus the structure of the book focuses on the local the national and the global desire for communications regardless of the means      Broadcasting, Cable, the Internet, and Beyond Joseph R. Dominick, Barry L. Sherman, 2004
