Pisacah A Place Of Plenty:

The Goddess of War Dennis McCown, 2013-02-15 John Wesley Hardin is the most famous gunfighter of the American Wild West. The subject of conversations from the Mexican border to the rowdy saloons of Kansas, he was the greatest celebrity of the age. He wrote an autobiography but he only told what he wanted known and few have researched beyond that. Today Hardin is an enigma. Part of the mystery is his disastrous relationship with Helen Beulah Mrose; yet she has not been researched at all. Until now, Helen Beulah's story is the final piece of the vast jigsaw of Hardin's life and legend. Author Dennis McCown has delved into the mystery of Helen Beulah, researching from Florida to California and north to faraway Alaska. McCown has uncovered one of the great tragedies of the Wild West. He developed this into the story of those around John Wesley Hardin. In the end, this is a woman's story, not a gunfighter's, and it's also four biographies. Hardin's story is told, but so is Helen Mrose's, Martin Mrose's, and Laura Jennings's. Little known today, but their lives are integral to the mystery. Written for a general audience, the story includes footnotes for those interested in knowing more. Footnotes: historian Leon Metz called the best I've ever seen. DENNIS McCOWN was born and raised in Wyoming and is proud of his cowboy heritage. Though he has traveled widely, he always comes back to his roots. After hearing references to Helen Beulah Mrose, McCown spent sixteen years researching her story. A member of the Wild West History Association (WWHA), McCown is a former member of the National Outlaw Lawman Association (NOLA) and the Western Outlaw Lawman Association (WOLA), which merged to form the WWHA. McCown is also a member of SASS, the Single Action Shooting Society. Today, McCown is a college instructor in Texas.

The Horrell Wars David Johnson, 2014-06-15 For decades the Horrell brothers of Lampasas, Texas, have been portrayed as ruthless killers and outlaws, but author David Johnson paints a different picture of these controversial men. The Horrells were ranchers, and while folklore has encouraged the belief that they built their herds by rustling, contemporary records indicate a far different picture. The family patriarch, Sam Horrell, was slain at forty-eight during a fight with Apaches in New Mexico. One Horrell son died in Confederate service; of the remaining six brothers, five were shot to death. Only Sam Jr. lived to old age and died of natural causes. Johnson covers the Horrells and their wars from cradle to grave. Their initial confrontation with the State Police at Lampasas in 1873 marked the most disastrous shootout in Reconstruction history and in the history of the State Police. The brothers and loyal friends then fled to New Mexico, where they became entangled in what would later evolve into the violent Lincoln County War. Their contribution, known to history as the Horrell War, has racial overtones in addition to the violence that took place in Lincoln County. The brothers returned to Texas, where in time they became involved in the Horrell-Higgins War. The family was nearly wiped out following the feud, when two of the brothers were killed by a mob in Bosque County. Johnson presents an up-to-date account of these wars and incidents while maintaining a neutral stance necessary for historical books dealing with feuds. He also includes previously unpublished photographs of the Horrell family and others. New Mexico Historical Review Lansing Bartlett Bloom, Paul A. F. Walter, 1997 American Book
