Pitchings Triple Crown Contenders:

Pitching's Triple Crown Contenders Robert L. Minter, 2000-01-01 Pitching's Triple Crown Contenders is about baseball's greatest pitchers. It is a fair and comprehensive comparison of pitchers from all eras. Unlike other Baseball's Greatest books, it relies strictly on the numbers and it doesn't try to rank pitchers in with hitters. Fifth place in strikeouts is the same in 1999 as it was in 1888; it means that only four pitchers in the league had a higher strikeout total. The placement in each Triple Crown category is the sole criteria used to rank the players. It's a fresh new way of evaluating the careers of baseball's greatest pitchers. TCC points should become part of serious fans' vocabulary within a couple of years and eventually may become an Official Major League Baseball Statistic. The various lists towards the end of the book confirm what most fans already knew about who were the flamethrowers and who were the best finesse pitchers. Three new stats for pitchers are introduced: Hitless Average and Out Percentage, and the greatest pitchers' best seasons are ranked using the TCC Ratio.

He was the most popular athlete in New York and was a star on the powerful New York Giants teams of 1905 and 1908. Though haunted by tragedy, including the deaths of both of his parents as a boy, Donlin was a charming, engaging, and kind-hearted man who also had successful careers on the stage and in film. One of the early bad boys among professional athletes, Donlin's temper and combativeness, compounded by alcoholism, led to battles with umpires and fans, numerous suspensions from the game, and even jail time. In 1906, when Donlin married vaudeville actress Mabel Hite, his life changed for the better, and their love story captivated the nation. Donlin left baseball after his sensational comeback for the dramatic 1908 season and joined Mabel on the stage, likely losing a Hall of Fame career. Then, in 1912, at the age of twenty-nine, Mabel died of intestinal cancer. After making a final comeback as a player in 1914, Donlin starred in baseball's first feature film. He became a drinking buddy of actors John Barrymore and Buster Keaton and married actress Rita Ross. The couple moved to Hollywood.

where Donlin became a beloved figure and appeared in roughly one hundred movies mostly in minor roles Despite his Hollywood career Donlin stayed connected to the game he loved and was seeking a coaching job with the Giants when he died of a heart attack in 1933 At the dawn of the celebrity era of sports Donlin was one of the nation's first athletes to capture the public's attention This biography by Steve Steinberg and Lyle Spatz shows why The Baseball Maniac's Almanac Bert Randolph Sugar,2010-07-01 An addictive read that is sure to spark conversation wherever baseball is spoken The Baseball Maniac's Almanac is part reference part trivia part brain teaser and absolutely the greatest most unusual and thorough compendium of baseball stats and facts ever compiled all verified for accuracy by the Baseball Hall of Fame In its pages renowned sportswriter Bert Randolph Sugar presents thousands of fascinating lists tables data and stimulating facts about Individual players and teams Managers Player relatives The Hall of Fame Annual awards The World Series All Star Games The book also contains a list of the all time statistical leaders for every major league team as well as a truly unforgettable miscellaneous section that answers such mind boggling questions as Which major leaguers have palindromic surnames and Which players born under each zodiac sign have hit the most career home runs The Making of Modern Baseball Frank P.
