Pity Party 8th Grade In The Life Of Me Cass:

Nobody Was Here: Seventh Grade in the Life of Me: Penelope Alison Pollet, 2012-12-01 In this paperback debut Alison Pollet brings us the story of an observant uptown girl named Penelope whose posh upbringing can't protect her from changes at home and at school. It's 1981 and nothing is going right in Penelope's life. She has just started seventh grade at Elston Prep and she and her best friend Stacy aren't getting along. Stacy is all caught up in who's wearing what to whose Bar Mitzvah and has even become friends with Annabella and Pia, two of the biggest snobs at Elston. At home things are no better: there's a new mother's helper to contend with and Penelope's little brother Nathaniel just won't leave her alone. And when her parents are at home, which is rare, all they do is fight. The Pity Party Alison Pollet, 2006 When Cass Levin, an orphaned eighth grader at Elston Prep in New York City, begins a friendship with Rod Punkin, her world begins to change.

Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources. Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one. For example, children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age, such as sibling and parent death, adoption or divorce, and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations. For gay, lesbian, or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner, societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve. Helping Those Experiencing Loss: A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other, supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving. It explains the grieving process, interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups: children, young adults, parents who have lost a child, adults who have lost spouses, and the aging population. Literacy for the New Millennium Barbara J. Guzzetti, 2007-10-30 Living in an age of communication, literacy is an extremely integral part of our society. We are impacted by literature during our infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood. This four-volume set includes information from specialists in the field who discuss the influence of popular culture, media, and technology on literacy. Together, they offer a comprehensive outline of the study and practice of literacy in the United States.
