Place Culture Representation:

Place/culture/representation James S. Duncan, David Ley, 1993 Discussing authorial power landscape metaphor and the notions of community and sense of place this explores the ways in which spatial and cultural analysis have found much common ground in making sense of ourselves and the landscape we inhabit Place/Culture/Representation James S. Duncan, David Ley, 2013-04-15 Spatial and cultural analysis have recently found much common ground focusing in particular on the nature of the city Place Culture Representation brings together new and established voices involved in the reshaping of cultural geography The authors argue that as we write our geographies we are not just representing some reality we are creating meaning Writing becomes as much about the author as it is about purported geographical reality The issue becomes not scientific truth as the end but the interpretation of cultural constructions as the means Discussing authorial power discourses of the other texts and textuality landscape metaphor the sites of power knowledge relations and notions of community and the sense of place the authors explore the ways in which a more fluid and sensitive geographer's art can help us make sense of ourselves and the landscapes and places we inhabit and think about Making Worlds Susan Hardy Aiken, 1998 Representing a wide range of theoretical perspectives Making Worlds develops a provocative conversation about gender and spatiality in the interwoven material and symbolic environments we create For students and scholars in cultural studies geography literary criticism anthropology history and women's studies it offers new ways of thinking about space place and the spatial contexts of social thought and action Cultural Turns/geographical Turns Ian Cook, 2000 This book addresses the impact significance and characteristics of the cultural turn in contemporary geography It focuses on the development of the cultural geography subdiscipline and on what has made it a peculiar and unique realm of study It demonstrates the importance of culture in the development of debates in other subdisciplines within geography and beyond In line with these previous themes the significance of space in the production of cultural values and expressions is also developed Along with its timely examination of the health of the cultural geographical subdiscipline this book is to be valued for its analysis of the impact of cultural theory on studies elsewhere in geography and of ideas of space and spatiality elsewhere in the social sciences The scope of the book is therefore broad covering work that spans the geographical discipline and even going beyond that to touch on debates in the social sciences and humanities The book's potential readership is also broad The summary chapters which precede each section will appeal to undergraduate students whilst chapters written by individuals leading their fields will be compulsory reading for researchers at all levels of higher education Placebound Louise C. Johnson, Jackie Huggins, Jane Jacobs, 2000 This book examines Australian spaces in feminist terms Each chapter uses a different key feminist theoretical framework liberal socialist radical postmodern and postcolonial to generate a range of Australian feminist geographies The Urban Communication Reader Gene Burd, Susan J. Drucker, Gary Gumpert, 2007 Explores the notion that the push toward marketization is the central force restructuring the communications landscape This book examines the consequences of this development for the constitution of public culture It analyzes the core institutional processes of marketization Representation of Space and Form in Maya Painting on Pottery Terence Grieder,1964 Virtual Reality in Archaeology Juan A.
