Place Names Of The Alberni Valley:

Place Names of the Alberni Valley Helen Ford, Dorrit MacLeod, Alberni District Museum and Historical Society, Gene Joyce, 1988 Place Names of the Alberni Valley Helen Ford, Dorrit MacLeod, Gene Joyce, 1978-01-01 Place Names of the Alberni Valley Helen Ford, Dorrit MacLeod, Gene Joyce, 1982 Family origin histories Edward Sapir, Morris Swadesh, Alexander Thomas, John Thomas, 2009-01-01 Nuuchaltnlu family histories are actually tribal histories since their idea of family encompasses the tribe. Eighteen such histories are presented here chronicling the origins and resources of a number of tribal families. In lieu of written records these oral traditions stood as Nuuchaltnlu history and were recited formally in public on ceremonial occasions. Several accounts give long lists of foods. Others describe the acquisition of important technological advances such as a salmon trap. Half of the texts are short focusing on a particular item like a mask or a house decoration. One text lists hundreds of Nuuchaltnlu place names given mythically by Swan Women to the Port Alberni region which was previously Salish in population and language. Generally these histories explain how the world came to be and set forth family claims to material and spiritual resources. Each account belonged to the family which had the exclusive right to tell it publicly. Summary outlines are provided in the introduction. Published in English Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-07 National Union Catalog, 1980 , 1981 Bibliographic Guide to North American History , 1980 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Landscapes of Injustice Jordan Stanger-Ross, 2020-08-20 In 1942 the Canadian government forced more than 21 000 Japanese Canadians from their homes in British Columbia. They were told to bring only one suitcase each and officials vowed to protect the rest. Instead Japanese Canadians were dispossessed: all their belongings either stolen or sold. The definitive statement of a major national research partnership, Landscapes of Injustice reinterprets the internment of Japanese Canadians by focusing on the deliberate and permanent destruction of home through the act of dispossession. All forms of property were taken. Families lost heirlooms and everyday possessions. They lost decades of investment and labour. They lost opportunities, neighbourhoods and communities; they lost retirements, livelihoods and educations. When Japanese Canadians were finally released from internment in 1949 they had no homes to return to. Asking why and how these events came to pass and charting Japanese Canadians' diverse responses, this book details the implications and legacies of injustice perpetrated under the cover of national security. In Landscapes of Injustice the diverse descendants of dispossession work together to understand what happened. They find that dispossession is not a chapter that closes or a period that neatly ends. It leaves enduring legacies of benefit and harm, shame and silence, and resilience and activism Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-07 Publishers Directory , 1994 Canadians , 1984 National Union Catalog , 1980 Includes entries for maps and atlases Aboriginal Geographical Names of Canada Albertina Pianarosa, Canadian Permanent Committee on Geographical Names, Geomatics Canada, 1997 Native geographical names have a very special place in the toponymy of Canada. This specialized toponymic bibliography is the first of its kind in Canada to be developed from a data base covering the whole country. Of particular assistance to users are the annotations which accompany nearly all the 1240 entries. In addition to over 1000 records on Native Canadian toponymy, have also been included for comparison purposes some records on Native toponymy in other countries.
