Place To Call Home

Constance Frederica Gordon Cumming

Place To Call Home:

A Place to Call Home? Lynda Smith, 2013-12-02 A Place to Call Home by Lynda Smith is set in 1936 a time between the two world wars but Jacobs story begins in 1905 He is a Russian Jewish immigrant whose parents and younger sister are desperate to escape the escalating danger of the Russian pogroms They embark on a long perilous sea journey and arrive in the northwest of England where at the age of ten years Jacob starts a new life in his adopted country His ambition is to be a successful businessman and he achieves that goal His life becomes even more complicated when he falls in love with one of his female employees They enter into an affair resulting in the birth of a son who is blissfully unaware that Jacob is his father Torn between his loyalty to his wife and daughters his deeply embedded Jewish roots and his mistress and his son Jacob is in constant turmoil about what to do so as to cause the least amount of hurt and pain to all the people he holds dear The story takes into account the horror of the Great War in which Jacob enlisted as a boy soldier in 1916 Threaded throughout this story are the themes of socio economic disparity religious bigotry ignorance and anti Semitism A Place to Call Home Mary Ellen Stelling, Peter James Stelling, 2010 When Lenore de Quincy s father gives her the key to a bank box containing a fortune in cash and then dies she realizes she is no longer under constraints to remain unhappily married She abandons her husband taking her daughter Angela with her from a provincial town in western Pennsylvania to the bright lights of Manhattan A PLACE TO CALL HOME is a novel inspired by true stories set against the First World War The Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression It centers around two well to do families joined by an arranged marriage The action is seen through Angela s eyes as she struggles with the effects on her life of her parents divorce a thing viewed in the 1920 s as scandalous and tragic Her travels between New York City and her father s nurturing family in a coal belt town near Pittsburgh provide humorous and nostalgic anecdotes about growing up in the America of that era Mary Ellen Stelling was born in Pittsburgh PA in 1915 and lived in New York Florida North Carolina and Texas before settling in 1946 in Atlanta For five years a feature columnist on the Women s Page of the Atlanta CONSTITUTION she was a member of the Georgia Poetry Society and the Poetry Society of Texas During the 1950 s and 1960 s her work appeared in poetry journals in almost every state of the Union and most newspapers of the time which featured verse published her poems She was the wife of a successful retail executive and a dedicated mother who did all the usual time consuming things to support her son s activities Behind the scenes she worked as time allowed to create a richly humorous prose document portraying her childhood experiences Those sketches written in the 1950 s totaling about a hundred pages were the seeds which inspired this book Mrs Stelling passed away at the age of 82 in 1998 Peter James Stelling was born in Charlotte NC in 1943 and has spent most of his life in Atlanta A graduate of Washington and Lee University and Grady College of the University of Georgia he spent four years in advertising in New York before returning home to work for the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and for two different firms specializing in Group Incentive Sales Travel and Meeting Planning One of his most memorable work experiences was serving as road manager for a traveling symphony orchestra during the early years of Robert Shaw's tenure as their Music Director. Now a contentedly retired father of two and grandfather of four, he is grateful for having had the luxury of time to complete this unique family document. He remains an active supporter of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, the Atlanta Opera, Trinity Presbyterian Church, and serves on the Board of Governors of the Vinings Club in suburban Atlanta.

A Place to Call Home Dr. Tom Obondo Okoyo, 2015-11-20 A Place to Call Home is a story of refugees, no community wanted to see anywhere close to them as if they were good for nothing. It is an epic portrayal of a painful dilemma of thousands of homeless internally displaced persons (IDPs) who were victims of the highly contested and disputed presidential election. The novel is a true tear-jerking reflection of a botched election in December 2007 and January 2008 which culminated into a post-election violence that brutally killed almost a thousand innocent people. Some were burned alive inside a church, God's territory as they called, where they had taken safe haven. About seven hundred thousand people were forcibly removed from their homes; some took refuge at police stations while others fled to neighboring countries to remain alive. Business premises, vehicles, and other properties worth billions of shillings were destroyed, and domestic animals were stolen. This spate of violence happened at a time when thousands of ethnic militias, heavily armed with homemade crude weapons, were chanting war slogans and singing traditional war songs everywhere in the country. Loyal to their respective presidential candidates, the militias roamed the streets of towns and villages, making every journey perilous. Enemies who got caught were beheaded, and their heads were paraded or displayed on the main highways. Women were seized and gang-raped by the militias and got infected with the deadly HIV/AIDS virus. Amazingly, communities turned their backs against the combined IDPs who were looking for a permanent settlement, calling them foreigners, invaders, or land grabbers in their own country. Breathing under such horrifying circumstances, all IDPs drawn from various tribes resolved to live together in peace and harmony and to prove to the world that they could live with people from other communities without any problem in spite of their language and cultural barriers. The idea of living together was instilled in the IDPs by VP Nyandegero who emerged as the leading light in their plight and the quest for what they could call home. VP Nyandegero won a special place in fellow IDPs' hearts and made them believe that life was worth fighting for. For seven years, these IDPs have been living in squalid conditions or in makeshift camps, waiting to be settled as promised by the ruling elite. The IDPs lived in rough and ready dwellings with no food, water, toilet facilities, social amenities, or sanitation at all. They were living in a world of their own, no laws, rules, or culture to observe. The fate of these IDPs is reminiscent of the Jews when they lived in Europe and were rejected by people in all countries after World War II and consequently had no place to call their home. After seven years in isolated makeshift camps, the IDPs were offered land to settle on by the Biblical Good Samaritan to prove that tribal groups, once sworn enemies, could live together peacefully and harmoniously. And now these IDPs would like to build the country's first utopia the same way the Israelis have transformed the desert land of Israel into another biblical Promised Land of Canaan the land of milk and honey This unfortunate event was disseminated throughout the world by the mass media
