Places And Occasions Poems:

Places and Occasions Betzabé M. Praeger, Frank C. Praeger, 1991 The Fiction of Occasion in Hellenistic and Roman Poetry Adrian Gramps, 2021-07-05 The aim of this book is to devise a method for approaching the problem of presence in Hellenistic and Roman poetry The problem of presence as defined here is the problem of the availability or accessibility to the reader of the fictional worlds disclosed by poetry From Callimachus Hymns to the Odes of Horace poets of this era repeatedly challenge readers by beckoning them to explore fictive spaces which are at once familiar and otherworldly realms of the imagination which are nevertheless firmly rooted in the lived reality of the poets and their contemporaries We too when we read these poems may feel simultaneously a sense of being transported to a world apart and of being seized upon by the poem's address in the here and now of reading The fiction of occasion is proposed as a new conceptual tool for understanding how these poems produce such problematic presences and what varieties of experience they make possible for their readers The fiction of occasion is defined as a phenomenon whereby a poem is fictionally framed as part of a material event or occasion with which the reader is invited to engage through the medium of the senses The book explores this concept through close readings of key authors from the corpus of first person poetry written in Greek and Latin between the 3rd century BCE and the 1st century CE with a focus on Callimachus Bion Catullus Propertius and Horace The ultimate purpose of these readings is to move towards developing a new vocabulary for conceptualising ancient poetry as an embodied experience Poems on Bishops by Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian Giovanni Colpani, 2025-06-16 Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian are both regarded as foundational poets for their respective literary traditions They wrote in the same period the 4th Century and they both devoted a cycle of poems to a debated theme of the time bishops Aim of this work is enhancing the appreciation of these cycles Gregory's carmina II 1 10 12 13 17 and Ephrem's carmina nisibena 13 21 as works of literature embedded in the performance and reading practices of the time in theological debates on the episcopal office and in their respective communities The book compares performance and transmission methods of the two corpora the word choice and imagery describing the episcopal office and how portraits of real life bishops are influenced by theological expectations on what a bishop should be Two chapters are devoted to literary phenomena peculiar to each author This book the first extensive comparison of these two authors from a literary point of view will interest scholars of Late Antique poetry and literature Church history and Patristic theology A new English translation of both corpora constitutes the appendix Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas Sarah J. Donovan, Kim Johnson, Anna J. Small Roseboro, Barbara Edler, Gayle Sands, 2025-09-01 Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas reimagines formative assessment by advocating for a dynamic poetic approach that delves into students meaning making processes It is a guide for teachers seeking innovative approaches to formative assessment promoting a holistic creative reflective and collaborative learning environment It challenges the limitations of traditional worksheets and quizzes urging educators to move beyond seeking restrictive answers and embrace students texts as pathways to understanding The authors put forward poetry as a vigorous tool and writing poetry as an act to foster deep learning across content areas Practical examples of acrostic poems haiku and pantoum demonstrate the adaptability of poetic forms to diverse subjects Through adaptable lesson plans that can be used across history math world languages ELA and science the book encourages intentional poetic writing to learn activities and explores how poetry might present itself as a short creative assessment tool that helps teachers see what their students know and can do while also offering them the space to make new meaning in their original poetry This book is a key resource for in service educators teaching grades 6 12

Poetry, Method and Education Research Esther Fitzpatrick, Katie Fitzpatrick, 2020-07-21 Poetry can be both political and pedagogical It is utilised in a variety of ways in research to enhance critique analyse and express different voices Poetry Method and Education Research brings together international scholars to explore issues as diverse as neoliberalism culture decolonising education health and teacher identities A key strength of the book is its attention to poetry as a research method including discussions of how to engage with poetry in research as well as including a range of research poems Poetry is thus framed as both a method and performance Authors in this book address a wide variety of questions from different perspectives including how to use poetry to think about complex issues in education where poetry belongs in a research project how to write poetry to generate and analyse data and how poetry can represent these findings This book is an essential resource for students and researchers in education programmes and those who teach in graduate research methods courses
