

Romanticism

- Romanticism, was a complex artistic, literary, and intellectual movement that originated in the second half of the 18th century in Europe.
- The movement validated strong emotion as an authentic source of aesthetic experience, placing new emphasis on such emotions as trepidation, horror and terror.
- Romanticism reached beyond the rational and Classicist ideal models to elevate a revived medievalism.
- The modern sense of a romantic character may be expressed in Byronic ideals of a gifted.
- The confines of the Industrial Revolution also had their influence on Romanticism.

Placing And Displacing Romanticism:

Placing and Displacing Romanticism Peter J. Kitson, 2001 The essays collected in this volume all address the crucial current issues of place and displacement placing and displacing in Romantic period studies These terms are used with dexterity and imagination explored and interrogated in both their literal and figurative manifestations Overall this volume of essays takes forward these seminal terms in contemporary criticism of Romantic writing in a series of fresh and subtle readings of texts and contexts historical philosophical social political and scientific Familiar texts are revisited with new insight and unfamiliar texts are placed in meaningful contexts Despite the claim that Romantic writing denies and evades history and the social tensions of its time this volume shows how such writing is replete with both explicit and implicit contributions to the essential debates of the time The contributors to this volume all leading scholars in their field combine the virtues of close textual reading with an informed awareness of the historical political and social pressures of the
