Pioneer Artists Of Taos:

Pioneer Artists of Taos Laura M. Bickerstaff, 1983      Pioneer Artists of Taos Mary Carroll Nelson, 1978      In Contemporary Rhythm Peter H. Hassrick, Elizabeth J. Cunningham, Ernest Leonard Blumenschein, 2008 The definitive retrospective on Ernest L Blumenschein 1874 1960 one of the founders of the Taos Society of Artists and perhaps the most accomplished of all the painters associated with that organization Reproducing masterworks from a new exhibit along with additional works and historical photographs this volume forms the most comprehensive assemblage of his paintings ever published      The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art at the University of Oklahoma Eric McCauley Lee, 2004 This beautifully illustrated catalogue highlights 101 works of art from the Fred Jones Jr Museum of Art at the University of Oklahoma Combining full color reproductions with explanatory text the catalogue presents significant examples of Asian European American American Indian and contemporary art from the museum s permanent collection For visitors to the museum and art aficionados these pages offer a tour of the museum s exceptional paintings sculptures works on paper and photographs Arranged in chronological and thematic sequence the catalogue entries focus on single works each by a different artist Authors Eric McCauley Lee and Rima Canaan discuss the artists backgrounds and analyze the featured works Where appropriate related objects in the collection appear as accompanying illustrations The celebrated artists represented in the catalogue include Claude Monet Pierre Auguste Renoir Vincent van Gogh Pablo Picasso Edward Hopper Georgia O Keeffe Allan Houser and members of the Taos Society of Artists Published to coincide with the opening of the museum s new wing designed by renowned architect Hugh Newell Jacobsen and named in honor of Mary and Howard Lester this catalogue celebrates the extraordinary development of the museum s collections over nearly three quarters of a century      A Place in the Sun Thomas Brent Smith, 2016-01-20 Of the hundreds of foreign students who attended the Munich Art Academy between 1910 and 1915 Walter Ufer 1876 1936 and E Martin Hennings 1886 1956 returned to the United States to foster the development of a national art They ultimately established their reputations in the American Southwest The two German American artists shared much in common and both would gain membership in the celebrated Taos Society of Artists Featuring nearly 150 color plates and historical photographs A Place in the Sun is a long overdue tribute to the lives achievements and artistic legacy of these two important artists In tracing the lifelong friendship and intersecting careers of Ufer and Hennings the contributors to this volume explore the social and artistic implications of the artists German heritage and training Following their training in Munich both men hoped to build careers in the spirited art environment of Chicago Both were sponsored by wealthy businessmen many of German descent The support of these patrons allowed Ufer and Hennings to travel to the American Southwest where they like so many other talented artists fell under the spell of Taos and its picturesque scenery They also encountered the region s Native peoples and Hispanic culture that inspired many of their paintings Despite their mutual interests Ufer and Hennings were not identical by any means Each artist had a distinct artistic style and as the essays in this volume reveal the two men could not have had more different personalities or career trajectories Connoisseurs of southwestern art have long admired the masterworks of Ufer and Hennings By offering a rich sampling of their paintings alongside informative essays by noted art historians A Place in the Sun ensures that their significant contributions to American art will be long remembered A Place in the Sun is published in cooperation with the Denver Art Museum

Eanger Irving Couse Virginia Couse Leavitt, 2019-01-24 Eanger Irving Couse 1866 1936 showed remarkable promise as a young art student His lifelong interest in Native American cultures also started at an early age inspired by encounters with Chippewa Indians living near his hometown Saginaw Michigan After studying in Europe Couse began spending summers in New Mexico where in 1915 he helped found the famous Taos Society of Artists serving as its first president and playing a major role in its success This richly illustrated volume featuring full color reproductions of his artwork is the first scholarly exploration of Couse s noteworthy life and artistic achievements Drawing on extensive research Virginia Couse Leavitt gives an intimate account of Couse s experiences including his early struggles as an art student in the United States and abroad his study of Native Americans his winter home and studio in New York City and his life in New Mexico after he relocated to Taos In examining Couse s role as one of the original six founders of the Taos Society of Artists the author provides new information about the art colony s early meetings original members and first exhibitions As a scholar of art history Leavitt has spent decades researching her subject who also happens to be her grandfather Her unique access to the Couse family archives has allowed her to mine correspondence photographs sketchbooks and memorabilia all of which add fresh insight into the American art scene in the early 1900s Of particular interest is the correspondence of Couse s wife Virginia Walker an art student in Paris when the couple first met Her letters home to her family in Washington State offer a vivid picture of her husband s student life in Paris where Couse studied under the famous painter William Bouguereau at the Acad mie Julian Whereas many artists of the early twentieth century pursued a radically modern style Couse held true to his formal academic training throughout his career He gained renown for his paintings of southwestern landscapes and his respectful portraits of Native peoples Through his depictions of the domestic and spiritual lives of Pueblo Indians Couse helped mitigate the prejudices toward Native Americans that persisted during this era

Visions of Belonging Julia B. Rosenbaum, 2006 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries depictions of New England flooded the American art scene Childe Hassam Willard Metcalf Theodore Robinson and Julian Weir and other well known artists produced images of quaint villages agricultural labor scenic rural churches and the distinctive New England landscape Julia B Rosenbaum asks why and how a range of artists including Impressionist and Modernist painters and sculptors and exhibitors fashioned this particular vision of New England in their work Against the backdrop of industrialization immigration and persistent post Civil War sectionalism many Americans yearned for national unity and identity As Rosenbaum finds New England emerged as symbolic of cultural and spiritual achievement and democratic values that served as an example for the nation By addressing the struggles for national unity the book offers a new interpretation of turn of the century American art Ultimately Visions of Belonging demonstrates how the local became so important to the national how art was crucial to the formation of national identity and how internal nation building takes place within the realm of culture as well as politics And even as later artists such as Georgia O Keeffe challenged New England s cultural hegemony the appeal of linking regional identity to national ideals continued in distinctive ways Beautifully illustrated with color plates and almost sixty halftones Visions of Belonging explores the interplay between art objects and the shaping of loyalties and identities in a formative phase of American culture It will appeal not only to art historians but also to anyone with an interest in nineteenth century studies the Gilded Age and Progressive Era American studies New England history and culture and American cultural and intellectual history
