The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18      Pioneer Buildings of British Columbia Rudi Dangelmaier, 1989 This gorgeously illustrated hardcover presents an interpretive survey of British Columbia's architectural heritage recorded by artist Rudi Dangelmaier in a series of watercolours and oil paintings Trained in Germany Dangelmaier has been documenting pioneer buildings in Saskatchewan and British Columbia since 1929 The buildings portrayed in this book date from the mid 19th to the early 20th century and reflect cultural influences and building techniques indigenous to British Columbia Dangelmaier's work moves beyond weathered facades and sagging beams the stuff of conventional architectural art His paintings exude a sense of place and time They capture the spirit of an architecture that is as much a part of a culture as it is a part of the landscape This is a unique and beautiful testament to the humble genius of BC's folk architects      Directory of Museums Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1975-06-18      Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner, 2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author's original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province's history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization      A Guide to Canadian Architectural Styles, Second Edition Shannon Ricketts, Leslie Maitland, Jacqueline Hucker, 2004 A thoughtful elegantly written and easy to read guide to over three hundred years of architectural style in Canada Kelly Crossman Carleton University      The British Columbia Gazette British Columbia, 1960      Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses      International mining and metallurgical manual, 1936      Sessional Papers, 1893 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the
