Pioneers of Change in Ethiopia Bahru Zewde, 2002 In this exciting new study Bahru Zewde one of the foremost historians of modern Ethiopia has constructed a collective biography of a remarkable group of men and women in a formative period of their country's history Ethiopia's political independence at the end of the nineteenth century put this new African state in a position to determine its own levels of engagement with the West Ethiopians went to study in universities around the world They returned with the skills of their education acquired in Europe and America and at home began to lay the foundations of a new literature and political philosophy Pioneers of Change in Ethiopia describes the role of these men and women of ideas in the social and political transformation of the young nation and later in the administration of Haile Selassie

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia

City of Black Souls Kai Parker, 2025-05-20 How Black Protestants in Chicago created Ethiopianism a transnational religious movement against Western imperialism City of Black Souls uncovers the history of how from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Black Protestants in Chicago created a transnational religious movement that connected the Black struggle for freedom in the United States to the global Black fight against Western imperialism. This was a movement of Ethiopianism meaning a movement for Black religious and political independence inspired by biblical references to Ethiopia particularly Psalm 68:31: "Princes shall come out of Egypt Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God." Through Ethiopianism, Kai Parker argues, Black Chicago Protestants drew from Coptic and Ethiopian Orthodox Christian traditions and worked with West African Christians to imagine that Afrodiasporic Christian faith heralded the apocalyptic end of imperialism and white supremacy. Parker illuminates the apocalyptic Ethiopianism of famous Black Chicagoans such as Ida B. Wells and gospel musician Thomas Dorsey and of lesser known ones such as painter William Edouard Scott and Nigerian immigrant turned anticolonial missionary Samuel Wadiei Martin. When John C. Robinson, a Black Chicagoan, led Haile Selassie's air force against Mussolini's invasion of Ethiopia in 1935-1936, this was no coincidence but rather an outgrowth of decades of Ethiopianism in Chicago. City of Black Souls shows that Ethiopianism was a dynamic, heterogeneous and modern movement through which Black migrants to Chicago engaged the industrial city and influenced the mid-twentieth century anticolonial and civil rights movements. The book is especially important to Black religious and political studies in its demonstration of how apocalyptic Ethiopianism differed in its contributions to the Black freedom struggle from the canonical prophetic religion grounded in the Exodus notion of moving from slavery to freedom.

State and Economic Development in Africa Aaron Tesfaye, 2017-07-20. This book critically assesses the impact of Ethiopia's policy of Agriculture Development Led Industrialization. Employing qualitative and quantitative analysis, it presents empirical evidence suggesting persistent economic growth. The research highlights improvements in infrastructure, health care, education, poverty alleviation, as well as reductions in infant mortality rate. The impact of this economic growth has, however, had led to only slight improvements in the plight of the poor. The author argues that while significant steps have been achieved with measurable economic gains, there are still undeniable obstacles within the federal system: prevailing patron-client relationships, constraints on state capacity to efficiently and effectively implement policy, and bureaucratic rent-seeking in the provision of public goods. The author concludes that these problems will have to be resolved before Ethiopia's political economy can achieve the stage of sustainable development.

The Quest for Socialist Utopia Bahru Zewde, 2014. A lively historical account of the rise of Ethiopia's student movement by one of those involved, its role in overthrowing the imperial regime, and its impact on the shaping of the country's future. In the second half of the 1960s and the early 1970s, the Ethiopian student movement emerged from rather innocuous beginnings to become the major opposition force against the imperial regime in Ethiopia, contributing perhaps more than any other factor to the eruption of the 1974 revolution, a revolution that brought about not only the end of the long reign of Emperor Haile Selassie but also a dynasty of exceptional longevity. The student movement would be of fundamental importance in the shaping of the future Ethiopia, instrumental in both its political and social development. Bahru Zewde himself, one of the students involved in the uprising, draws on interviews with former student leaders and activists as well as documentary sources to describe the steady radicalisation of the movement characterised particularly after 1965 by annual demonstrations against the regime and culminating in the ascendancy of Marxism Leninism by the early 1970s Almost in tandem with the global student movement the year 1969 marked the climax of student opposition to the imperial regime both at home and abroad It was also in that year that students broached what came to be famously known as the national question ultimately resulting in the adoption in 1971 of the Leninist Stalinist principle of self determination up to and including secession On the eve of the revolution the student movement abroad split into two rival factions a split that was ultimately to lead to the liquidation of both and the consolidation of military dictatorship as well as the emergence of the ethno nationalist agenda as the only viable alternative to the military regime Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University and Vice President of the Ethiopian Academy of Sciences He has authored many books and articles notably A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855-1974 and Pioneers of Change in Ethiopia The Reformist Intellectuals of the Early Twentieth Century Finalist for the Bethwell A Ogot Book Prize to the author of the best book on East African Studies 2015 Ethiopia Addis Ababa University Press paperback The Journal of Oromo Studies, 2007 Römische historische Mitteilungen, 2004 Northeast African Studies, 2007 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2003 The Evangelical Movement in Ethiopia Tibebe Eshete, 2009 Instead Eshete shows it was a genuine indigenous response to cultural pressures Liza Debevec Journal of Religion in Africa Journal of Ethiopian languages and literature, 2012-06-02 Society, State, and History Bahru Zewde, 2008 Troubles and Travels of an Eritrean Aristocrat Bairu Tafla, 2007 African Economic History, 2008 The International Journal of African Historical Studies, 2003 Urban Africa Abdou Maligalim Simone, Abdelghani Abouhane, 2005-05-17 Amidst emergent cultural formations in Dakar Addis Ababa Cape Town Kisangani Jos Zaria Cairo and Marakesh this collection focuses on diverse ways Africans negotiate novel spatial practices political economic processes and social relations that entangle place identity and power in urban sites While historically familiar patterns linking the country and city remain these sedimentations are reworked through the incessant remaking of virtual real and moral economies where African agency animates diverse urban formations African cities are made meaningful through the geographically uneven dynamics of globalization that articulate with locally specific histories cultural practices and political contingencies The History of Ethiopian Immigrants and Refugees in America, 1900-2000 Solomon Addis Getahun, 2007 Includes statistical tables and graphs With Ethiopian Rulers May Ydlibi, 2006 The History of Ethiopian Immigrants in the United States in the Twentieth Century, 1900-2000 Solomon Addis Getahun, 2005
