Fotografie Lateinamerika von 1860 bis heute Erika Billeter, 1981 Catalogue of an exhibition held at the Kunsthaus Zurich 20 August 15 November 1981      A New History of Photography Michel Frizot, 1998 A collection of entries that help chronicle the history of photography explaining the different techniques that have been used and defining the common terms used in the field      Larry Clark and Masculinity Dirk Reynders, 2025-10-02 This book explores the visual representation of masculinity in the work of Larry Clark using this to prompt a wider conversation about the male body in visual culture and art Infamous for his often deeply personal depictions of teenage sexuality subcultures and drug use filmmaker and photographer Larry Clark also paid close attention to male identity as revealed for the first time in this book It explores the visual representation of masculinity in Clark s work revealing how his images of the male body differ from traditional depictions and function not only as objects of spectacle but as spectacular objects in themselves Despite being hugely influential there has been a lack of critical attention paid to Clark s work following his celebrated photobook Tulsa 1971 Larry Clark and Masculinity is a vital contribution to research on Clark and visual and photography studies more broadly where it explores the photographer s depiction of the male subject as an object of desire It also expands research in gender and queer studies by examining masculinity as a relational social and intercultural construct in media and society enhancing our understanding of Clark s narrative and iconographic practice while simultaneously positioning his work at the centre of the cultural discourse around male subjectivity Drawing on an array of Clark s work including his films Kids and Ken Park as well as his photographs Masculinity and Visual Culture offers a critical re examination of Clark s impact on visual culture and gender representation By positioning Clark s work at the centre of the cultural discourse around male subjectivity it enhances our understanding of Clark s narrative and iconographic practice as a means of negotiating complex subjectivities

History Of Australia (Volumes 3 & 4) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark s six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1824 1888 takes the story of Australia through the momentous discovery of gold and the separation of Victoria from New South Wales to the centenary of the coming of European civilisation to Australia on 26 January 1888 The story is one of destruction as well as construction the destruction of the Aborigines and the construction of an essentially English bourgeois society and the taming of an alien and seemingly sterile land This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive      In Light of Rome John F. McGuigan, Jr., Frank H. Goodyear III, 2022-08-09 This comprehensive study of Rome s contribution to the early history of photography traces the medium s rise from a fledgling science to a dynamic form of artistic expression that forever changed the way we perceive the Eternal City The authors examine the diverse transnational group of photographers who thrived in the cosmopolitan art center of Rome and the pivotal role they played in the refinement and technical development of the nascent medium in the nineteenth century The book ranges from the earliest pioneers the French daguerreotypist Joseph Philibert Girault de Prangey and the Welsh calotypist Calvert Richard Jones to the work of the Roman School of Photography and its successors among them James Anderson and Robert Macpherson of Britain Fr d ric Flach ron Firmin Eug ne Le Dien and Gustave Le Gray of France and Giacomo Caneva Adriano de Bonis and Pietro Dovizielli of Italy Lavishly illustrated with 112 plates many never before published by nearly fifty practitioners this volume expands our understanding of the place of Rome in early photography An exhibition of the same title to open at the Bowdoin College Museum of Art in December 2022 accompanies this study [A Biographical Bibliography.
