B. Yeats,2016-01-11 INTRODUCTION Dr Corbett Bishop of Oxford and Norwich lamented long ago the departure of the English fairies In Queen Mary s time he wrote When Tom came home from labour Or Cis to milking rose Then merrily merrily went their tabor And merrily went their toes But now in the times of James they had all gone for they were of the old profession and their songs were Ave Marias In Ireland they are still extant giving gifts to the kindly and plaguing the surly Have you ever seen a fairy or such like I asked an old man in County Sligo Amn t I annoyed with them was the answer Do the fishermen along here know anything of the mermaids I asked a woman of a village in County Dublin Indeed they don t like to see them at all she answered for they always bring bad weather Here is a man who believes in ghosts said a foreign sea captain pointing to a pilot of my acquaintance In every house over there said the pilot pointing to his native village of Rosses there are several Certainly that now old and much respected dogmatist the Spirit of the Age has in no manner made his voice heard down there In a little while for he has gotten a consumptive appearance of late he will be covered over decently in his grave and another will grow old and much respected in his place and never be heard of down there and after him another and another and another Indeed it is a question whether any of these personages will ever be heard of outside the newspaper offices and lecture rooms and drawing rooms and eel pie houses of the cities or if the Spirit of the Age is at any time more than a froth At any rate whole troops of their like will not change the Celt much Giraldus Cambrensis found the people of the western islands a trifle paganish How many gods are there asked a priest a little while ago of a man from the Island of Innistor There is one on Innistor but this seems a big place said the man and the priest held up his hands in horror as Giraldus had just seven centuries before
