

The background of the cover features a light blue gradient with faint, semi-transparent chemical structures, including hexagons and rings, some with labels like 'OH' and 'CH'. In the foreground, there is a close-up of laboratory glassware: a graduated cylinder on the left with markings at 100, 200, and 300; a large Erlenmeyer flask in the center containing a yellow liquid with a glass rod stirring it; and a smaller round-bottom flask to its right. The overall aesthetic is clean and scientific.
