Gehring,2018-12-20 In As the Broken White Lines Become One Michael Gehring recounts his spiritual journey through the landscape of late twentieth century southern American Christianity This account depicts how and why he drifted away from the Roman Catholic Church fellowshiped for a while with the Assemblies of God sojourned for a prolonged time as an outsider to the institutional church and eventually found a theological home within United Methodism What follows is a spiritual journey with a lot of turns The work is not intended to be a complete autobiography Significant biographical details and relationships are not included as this narrative focuses on the shifting and sifting grounds of American Christian denominations This chronicle primarily concerns the spiritual journey that led him to United Methodism and what it was like not only to choose it but also to inhabit it The Life and Miracles of St. Benedict Pope Gregory I,1880 *The Monks of the West, from St. Benedict to St. Bernard: Dedication. Barnes,2016-11-01 Winner 2017 Ragsdale Award A timely study that puts current issues religious intolerance immigration the separation of church and state race relations and politics in historical context The masthead of the Liberator an anti Catholic newspaper published in Magnolia Arkansas displayed from 1912 to 1915 an image of the Whore of Babylon She was an immoral woman sitting on a seven headed beast holding a golden cup full of her abominations and intended to represent the Catholic Church Propaganda of this type was common during a nationwide surge in antipathy to Catholicism in the early twentieth century This hostility was especially intense in largely Protestant Arkansas where for example a 1915 law required the inspection of convents to ensure that priests could not keep nuns as sexual slaves Later in the decade anti Catholic prejudice attached itself to the campaign against liquor and when the United States went to war in 1917 suspicion arose against German speakers most of whom in Arkansas were Roman Catholics In the 1920s the Ku Klux Klan portrayed Catholics as inauthentic Americans and claimed that the Roman church was trying to take over the country s public schools institutions and the government itself In 1928 a Methodist senator from Arkansas Joe T Robinson was chosen as the running mate to balance the ticket in the presidential campaign of Al Smith a Catholic which brought further attention Although public expressions of anti Catholicism eventually lessened prejudice was once again visible with the 1960 presidential campaign won by John F Kennedy Anti Catholicism in Arkansas illustrates how the dominant Protestant majority portrayed Catholics as a feared or despised other a phenomenon that was particularly strong in Arkansas
