Crime, Policing and Place David Evans, Nicholas Fyfe, David Herbert, 2002-01-31 First published in 2002 Spiralling crime rates and continuing public concern about police community relations ensure that crime and policing remain firmly on the social and political agenda An awareness of crime continues to affect the lives of ordinary people and also to stimulate policy makers who recognise that crime rates form one of the principles by which their effectiveness is judged Of the many agencies involved in the battle against crime the police in their various roles constitute the most obvious front line Drawing on case material from Britain Europe Canada and America Crime Policing and Place examines the significance of spatial patterns of crime and the processes which produce them The book analyses the implications of theoretical and methodological innovation in the study of crime and policing the processes which underlie the uneven distribution and impact of crime and the success of recent policies aimed at preventing crime and enhancing police community relations Contributors are drawn from a variety of academic disciplines including criminology geography and social policy and also from the police and government agencies with direct policy input

Murder on Madison Square Victoria Thompson, 2022-05-03 Sarah and Frank Malloy must catch a scheming killer in this latest gripping installment in the USA Today bestselling Gaslight Mysteries Former policeman Frank Malloy is frustrated when a woman requests his private detective services to implicate her wealthy husband in adultery the only legal grounds for divorce in New York state Although Mrs Bing seems genuinely distressed about her marriage and desperate to end it she refuses to tell Frank the reason she absolutely must divorce her husband and admits she has no legal grounds Frank explains he won't manufacture evidence for her and sends her on her way The following week Frank and Sarah happen to be attending the first ever auto show in Madison Square Garden when they meet the woman's husband Alfred Bing who has invested in a company that produces one of the electric motorcars on display A few days later the newspapers report that millionaire Alvin Bing has been found dead pinned beneath one of the wheels of his very own motorcar But who was driving it The obvious suspect is Mrs Bing but Frank and Sarah find that nothing is as it seems in their puzzling dangerous search for truth

Crime and Fear in Public Places Vania Ceccato, Mahesh K. Nalla, 2020-07-15 The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9780429352775> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license No city environment reflects the meaning of urban life better than a public place A public place whatever its nature a park a mall a train platform or a street corner is where people pass by meet each other and at times become a victim of crime With this book we submit that crime and safety in public places are not issues that can be easily dealt with within the boundaries of a single discipline The book aims to illustrate the complexity of patterns of crime and fear in public places with examples of studies on these topics contextualized in different cities and countries around the world This is achieved by tackling five cross-cutting themes the nature of the city's environment as a backdrop for crime and fear the dynamics of individuals' daily routines and their transit safety the safety perceptions experienced by those who are most in fear in public places the metrics of crime and fear and finally examples of current practices in promoting safety All these original chapters contribute to our quest for safer more inclusive resilient equitable and sustainable cities and human settlements aligned to the Global 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
