Place Makers Public Art That Tells You Where You Are:

Place Makers Ronald Lee Fleming, Renata Von Tschärner, 1987 Space, Site, Intervention Erika Suderburg, 2000
From Ferdinand Cheval's Palais Idéal 1879-1905 and Simon Rodia's Watts Towers 1921-1954 to Ant Farm's Cadillac Ranch 1974 and Richard Serra's Tilted Arc 1981 installation art has continually crossed boundaries encompassing sculpture architecture performance and visual art. Although unique in its power to transform both the site in which a work is constructed and the viewer's experience of being in a place, installation art has not received the critical attention accorded other art forms. In Space Site Intervention, some of today's most prominent art critics, curators, and artists view installation art as a diverse, multifaceted, and international art form that challenges institutional assumptions and narrow conceptual frameworks. The contributors discuss installation in relation to the genealogy of modern art, community and corporate space, multimedia, cyberspace, public and private ritual, the gallery and the museum, public and private patronage, and political action. This ambitious volume focuses on issues of class, sexuality, cultural identity, race, and gender and highlights a wide range of artists whose work is often marginalized by mainstream art history and criticism. Together, the essays in Space Site Intervention investigate how installation resonates within modern culture and society as well as its ongoing influence on contemporary visual culture.

Places as Art Mike Lipske, 1985 Public Art Cher Krause Knight, 2011-09-23
This book takes a bold look at public art and its populist appeal, offering a more inclusive guide to America's creative tastes and shared culture. It examines the history of American public art from FDR's New Deal to Christo's The Gates and challenges preconceived notions of public art, expanding its definition to include a broader scope of works and concepts. Expands the definition of public art to include sites such as Boston's Big Dig, Las Vegas Treasure Island, and Disney World. Offers a refreshing alternative to the traditional rhetoric and criticism surrounding public art. Includes insightful analysis of the museum and its role in relation to public art.

City Comforts David Sucher, 2003
The book shows examples of small things, City Comforts, that make urban life pleasant: places where people can meet, methods to tame cars, and to make buildings good neighbors. Art that infuses personality into locations and makes them into places. Many of these small details are so obvious as to be invisible.

On The Margins Of Art Worlds Larry Gross, 2019-06-04
During the late 1980s, the near worship of artistic genius produced auction sales of works by Vincent Van Gogh and Pablo Picasso for tens of millions of dollars, over 15 million for a painting by Jasper Johns, and record prices for works by many other deceased and even living masters. At the same time, it was no longer controversial in academic and intellectual circles to maintain that art works are the products of what Howard Becker has termed collective activity carried out within loosely defined art worlds. Works of art from this point of view are not the products of individual makers, artists who possess a rare and special gift. They are rather joint products of all the people who cooperate via an art world's characteristic conventions to bring works like that into existence. Artists are some sub group of the world's participants who, by common agreement, possess a special gift; therefore, they make a unique and indispensable contribution to the work and thereby make it art 1982 35 The concept of the art world with its central focus on the collective social and conventional nature of artistic production distribution and appreciation confronts and potentially undermines the romantic ideology of art and artists still dominant in Western societies On the Wall Janet Braun-Reinitz, Jane Weissman, 2009 A comprehensive survey of New York City's vibrant neighborhood art The Sourcebook of Architectural & Interior Art, 2006 Report, 1978 All about Old Buildings Diane Maddex, 1985 Past Meets Present, 1987 The Public Interest, 1982 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1983 Edge City Joel Garreau, 1991 Includes material on the metropolitan areas of New Jersey Boston Detroit Atlanta Phoenix Texas Southern California the San Francisco Bay Area and Washington D C Publishers Directory, 1994 Public Art Review, 1996 American Book Publishing Record, 1982 The Tablet, 1896 Re Views Ruth Charity, 2005 Re views artists and public space provides an extensive overview of projects where artists have engaged new thinking and practices for the build environment and public space Addressing the subject of public art from the artist's perspective and emphasising process as well as product Re views explores artistic practice beyond the studio addressing the importance of research time for artists the relationship between artist and audience collaboration between artists and other design professionals and the contribution artists can make to the future of our towns and cities Page 4 of cover The Avalanche, 1875
