Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Doctrine of "Grace": Theologian of Freedom (1906-1945) Craig Lantz, ThD, PhD, 2025-10-15 In 1937 on the threshold of Nazi Germany's war on the world Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote what turned out to be one of the most influential books of the century The Cost of Discipleship In it he challenged the faulty faith and compromises of German Christians famously writing When Christ calls a man he bids him come and die Now eighty two years after the book was first published Craig Lantz writes on Dietrich Bonhoeffer's doctrine of Grace Lantz examines Bonhoeffer's doctrine of grace in his academic works books and life Bonhoeffer complained that the Nazi German Church had proclaimed a cheap grace The Church in 2019 is not much different Bonhoeffer spoke as a prophet in his time and prophetically denounced the Church for preaching cheap grace If Bonhoeffer were alive today he would say the same thing about the condition of the Church in 2019 Grace is a foundational doctrine for Christians yet it is one of the most misunderstood Bonhoeffer watched as many used the doctrine of grace as an excuse to do whatever they wanted and in response he wrote his classic work on what it truly means to follow Jesus We cheapen grace he declared when we use it to compromise our behavior or to lower the standards of God's Word In this examination of Bonhoeffer's doctrine of grace Lantz explains what Bonhoeffer meant when he taught that grace is free but will cost us everything Therefore grace is not cheap

Reading in the Presence of Christ: A Study of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Bibliology and Exegesis Joel

Banman, 2021-02-11 Bonhoeffer's writings include a significant amount of biblical interpretation but his potential contributions in the fields of biblical studies and theological exegesis of Scripture have not been sufficiently explored This study reassesses some of his key exegetical writings in light of his theology of revelation and bibliology unfolding the ways in which his reading of the Bible is determined by his theology of Scripture Through this analysis Joel Banman demonstrates that the uniting factor of Bonhoeffer's biblical interpretation is not methodological but bibliological he reads Scripture as the living word of the present Christ
