

The background of the book cover is a painting of a deep canyon. A river flows through the bottom of the canyon, reflecting the light. A single, tall, thin tree stands on a rocky outcrop in the middle ground. The sky is a mix of warm, reddish-pink and cooler, purplish-blue tones, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall style is painterly and evocative.

A PLACE TO PRAY

Reflections on the Lord's Prayer

ROBERTA C. BONDI

Place To Pray Reflections On The Lords Prayer

Edward LANE (Vicar of Sparsholt.)

Place To Pray Reflections On The Lords Prayer:

A Place to Pray Roberta C. Bondi, 1998 In many ways the Lord's Prayer is the most fundamental of all Christian prayers. It was given by Jesus in response to his disciples' explicit request that he teach them to pray and throughout the period of the early church along with the Apostles' Creed it was regarded as a basic catechistic text. For a large number of people in our own period however trying to pray this prayer in any meaningful way is fraught with difficulties. Roberta Bondi contends that Christians are called to love God and our neighbors as ourselves and that the Lord's Prayer prayed honestly from the places we really are is a basic tool to help us do it. A Place to Pray Reflections on the Lord's Prayer is not an exegetical book rather the reflections in it which draw from the author's own experiences teaching and study of the early church are presented in a series of letters to a fictional friend. In these letters Bondi addresses many of the issues that make praying the Lord's Prayer difficult. At the same time she helps readers use the prayer as a means of helping them love God neighbor and self. An excellent resource for personal spiritual growth and development this volume is also well suited for adult study groups and is an ideal text for courses in Christian Spirituality Theology Worship and Pastoral Care.

Praying by Heart Stephen Cottrell, 2024-10-10 Archbishop of York Stephen Cottrell argues that the first two words of Christianity's most famous prayer the Lord's Prayer encapsulate the radical heart of the Christian faith that we belong to each other and that we all have access to God. And if we could understand both these ideas they would truly change our lives and the world. Unpacking each clause of this ancient prayer both for those who want to encounter it afresh and those beyond church circles this is the Lord's Prayer recast as a manifesto for the 21st century church and all who are searching to belong.

Du Moulin's Reflection reverberated, being a full answer to a pernicious pamphlet entitled Moral reflections on the number of the elect. Together with several arguments against transubstantiation ... To which is added a postscript in answer to some passages in Mr. Edmund Hiceringil's scurrilous piece stiled The second part of Naked Truth Edward LANE (Vicar of Sparsholt.), 1681

Reflections Brent Murphy, 2011-04-29 Based in Southern Chile and Southern Ireland this is a story of a man who encounters some strange spiritual experiences in both countries. Sectioned by his wife he is labelled a manic depressive and put on medication but the experiences continue despite all. The author is convinced that there is a battle going on between God and the devil and that the author is caught in the fight. While we sleep the author engages himself in a battle with the devil and believing that God is on his side fights to the end.

Private and Domestic Devotion in Early Modern Britain Alec Ryrie, 2016-04-15 Scholars increasingly recognise that understanding the history of religion means understanding worship and devotion as well as doctrines and polemics. Early modern Christianity consisted of its lived experience. This collection and its companion volume Worship and the Parish Church in Early Modern Britain ed Natalie Mears and Alec Ryrie bring together an interdisciplinary range of scholars to discuss what that lived experience comprised and what it meant. Private and domestic devotion how early modern men and women practised their religion when they were not in church is a vital and largely hidden subject Here historical literary and theological scholars examine piety of conformist non conformist and Catholic early modern Christians in a range of private and domestic settings in both England and Scotland The subjects under analysis include Bible reading the composition of prayers the use of the psalms the use of physical props for prayers the pious interpretation of dreams and the troubling question of what counted as religious solitude The collection as a whole broadens and deepens our understanding of the patterns of early modern devotion and of their meanings for early modern culture as a whole Good Neighbours Christian Religion Education Standard Eight , The Friend, Or, Advocate of Truth ,1877 The Prayer of Prayers John Wesley Hanson,1882 Parliament, Past and Present Arnold Wright,Philip Smith,1902 General catalogue of printed books British museum.
