Place Among The Fallen:

Northrop Frye's Lectures Robert D. Denham, 2016-06-22 The great Canadian literary critic and humanist Northrop Frye taught at Victoria College University of Toronto for fifty three years Remembering Northrop Frye 2011 brought together letters from eighty nine of Frye's students and friends in which they recorded their recollections of him as a teacher during the 1940s and 1950s However these students provided very few accounts of what Frye actually said in the classroom Outside of the video recordings of Frye's course in the English Bible this book a transcription of fifteen sets of notes taken by Northrop Frye's students in the late 1940s and early 1950s is the only available extended record of the content of Frye's courses For all those who wish that they could have sat in one or more of Frye's classes the present collection of notes will at least partially fulfill that wish One can now attend as it were fifteen of Frye's classes without having to pay tuition

My Life and Times, 1810-1899 John Bailey Adger, 1899 Voice of a Prophet A.W. Tozer, 2014-05-29 During his ministry which included extended pastorates in Chicago and Toronto Dr Tozer was often referred to as a prophet That doesn't mean he predicted future events but rather he spoke God's truth to believers and the culture even if it meant disrupting the status quo Even in the Bible prophets were much more likely to hold God's people and their leaders accountable to the truth of God's Word than to foretell the future The encouragement in Voice of a Prophet is that the church today is in desperate need of the kind of prophet Tozer embodied and describes in this important book Using the lives of such prophets as Elijah Elisha and John the Baptist Tozer underscores the importance of the ministry of the prophet in our world today
