Place In Space Ethics Aesthetics And Watersheds:

A Place in Space Gary Snyder, 2008-06-28 A collection of twenty nine essays written over the past forty years

Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship

A Sense of the Whole Mark Gonnerman, 2015-06-09 In 1997 Mark Gonnerman organized a yearlong research workshop on Gary Snyder's Mountains and Rivers Without End at the Stanford Humanities Center Members of what came to be known among faculty students and diverse community members as the Mountains Rivers Workshop met regularly to read and discuss Snyder's epic poem Here the poem served as a commons that turned the multiversity into a university once again if only for a moment The Workshop invited writers teachers and scholars from Northern California and Japan to speak on various aspects of Snyder's great accomplishment This book captures the excitement of these gatherings and invites readers to enter the poem through essays and talks by David Abram Wendell Berry Carl Bielefeldt Tim Dean Jim Dodge Robert Hass Stephanie Kaza Julia Martin Michael McClure Nanao Sakaki and Katsunori Yamazato It includes an interview with Gary Snyder appendices and other resources for further study Snyder once introduced a reading of this work with reference to whitewater rapids saying most of his writing is like a Class III run where you will do just fine on your own but that Mountains and Rivers is more like Class V if you're going to make it to take out you need a guide As a collection of commentaries and background readings this companion volume enhances each reader's ability to find their way into and through an adventurous and engaging work of art

Ireland and Ecocriticism Eóin Flannery, 2015-10-05 This book is the first truly interdisciplinary intervention into the burgeoning field of Irish ecological criticism Providing original and nuanced readings of Irish cultural texts and personalities in terms of contemporary ecological criticism Flannery's readings of Irish literary fiction poetry travel writing non fiction and essay writing are ground breaking in their depth and scope Explorations of figures and texts from Irish cultural and political history including John McGahern Derek Mahon Roger Casement and Tim Robinson among many others enable and invigorate the discipline of Irish cultural studies and international ecocriticism on the whole This book addresses the need to impress the urgency of lateral ecological awareness and responsibility among Irish cultural and political commentators to highlight continuities and disparities between Irish ecological thought writing and praxis and those of differential international writers critics and activists and to establish both the singularity and contiguity of Irish ecological criticism to the wider international field of ecological criticism With the introduction of concepts such as ecocosmopolitanism deep history ethics of proximity Gaia Theory urban ecology and postcolonial environmentalism to Irish cultural studies it takes Irish cultural studies in bracing new directions Flannery furnishes working examples of the necessary interdisciplinarity of ecological criticism and impresses the relevance of the Irish context to the broader debates within international ecological criticism Crucially the volume imports ecological critical paradigms into the field of Irish studies and demonstrates the value of such conceptual dialogue for the future of Irish cultural and political criticism This pioneering intervention exhibits the complexity of different Irish cultural and historical responses to ecological exploitation degradation and social justice

Distant Neighbors Gary Snyder, Wendell Berry, 2014-05-13 The letters are valuable for ecologists students and teachers of contemporary American literature and for those of us eager to know how these two distant neighbors networked negotiated and remained friends San Francisco Chronicle In Distant Neighbors both Berry and Snyder come across as honest and open hearted explorers There is an overall sense that they possess a deep and questing wisdom hard earned through land work travel writing and spiritual exploration There is no rushing no hectoring and no grand gestures between these two just an ever deepening inquiry into what makes a good life and how to live it even in the depths of the machine age Orion Magazine In 1969 Gary Snyder returned from a long residence in Japan to northern California to a homestead in the Sierra foothills where he intended to build a house and settle on the land with his wife and young sons He had just published his first book of essays Earth House Hold A few years before after a long absence Wendell Berry left New York City to return to land near his grandfather's farm in Port Royal Kentucky where he built a small studio and lived there with his wife as they restored an old house on their newly acquired homestead In 1969 Berry had just published Long Legged House These two founding members of the counterculture and of the new environmental movement had yet to meet but they knew each other's work and soon they began a correspondence Neither man could have imagined the impact their work would have on American political and literary culture nor could they have appreciated the impact they would have on one another Snyder had thrown over all vestiges of Christianity in favor of becoming a devoted Buddhist and Zen practitioner and had lived in Japan for a prolonged period to develop this practice Berry's discomfort with the Christianity of his native land caused him to become something of a renegade Christian troubled by the church and organized religion but grounded in its vocabulary and its narrative Religion and spirituality seemed like a natural topic for the two men to discuss and discuss they did They exchanged more than 240 letters from 1973 to 2013 remarkable letters of insight and argument The two bring out the best in each other as they grapple with issues of faith and reason discuss ideas of home and family worry over the disintegration of community and commonwealth and share the details of the lives they've chosen to live with their wives and children Contemporary American culture is the landscape they reside on Environmentalism sustainability global politics and American involvement literature poetry and progressive ideals these two public intellectuals address issues as broad as are found in any exchange in literature No one can be unaffected by the complexity of their relationship the subtlety of their arguments and the grace of their friendship This is a book for the ages Democracy, Ecology and the Politics of Place Mark Andrew Nechodom, 1998 The Workbook, 1994 Borderlines, 1997 The Beat Generation Lynn Marie Zott, 2003 This title in Gale's Literary Criticism Series presents comprehensive collections of criticism related to particular literary movements and themes throughout history This set focuses on the Beat Generation covering the major topics authors and works of the period complete with reprinted full text literary criticism Volume 1 a topics volume opens with an overview of the period followed by topical essays covering the Beat Generation and its relationship to publishing visual and performing arts Volumes 2 and 3 authors A-H and authors I-Z include entries on 28 major literary figures associated with the movement Author entries include introductions a representative list of major works primary source documents reprinted criticism and lists of further reading sources Authors featured include William S Burroughs Neal Cassady Gregory Corso Lawrence Ferlinghetti Allen Ginsberg Jack Kerouac Ken Kesey Kenneth Rexroth and others Additional features include Foreword written by Anne Waldman noted Beat author scholar and educator Black and white photographs of authors other notable people places and events Chronology of key events in the history of the Beat Generation Comprehensive author title and subject indexes in each volume Buddhism and Ecology Mary Evelyn Tucker, Duncan Ryūken Williams, 1997 The authors explore theoretical and methodological issues and analyze the prospects
