Places Of Pride The Work Of Photography Of Clara R Brian:

Health Culture in the Heartland, 1880-1980 Lucinda McCray Beier, 2009 A century of developing health culture in McLean County Illinois Illinois Historical Journal ,1990 Illinois History ,1989 Material Culture ,1992

Mothers & Motherhood Rima Dombrow Apple, Janet Lynne Golden, 1997 A comprehensive collection of historical studies of mothers and motherhood illustrating the shifting meaning of motherhood over time the differences between mothers and the kinds of evidence scholars use to study both the reality and the rhetoric of mothering General themes are the social construction of motherhood motherhood and reproduction social and cultural settings and public policy Topics include maternal grief in True Story 1920 1985 pregnancy and family limitation among Virginia gentry women 1780 1830 the La Leche League in postwar America mothering under slavery in the antebellum South and the beginnings of feminist birth control ideas in the US Paper edition unseen 19 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Illinois History Ellen M. Whitney, Illinois State Historical Library, 1995-02-22 Cosponsored by the Illinois State Historical Library and the Illinois State Historical Society this bibliography lists more than 4 600 books articles and manuscript sources Drawing on the publications of the sponsoring organizations as a guide and to form the core of the volume the editors include the major historical publications related to Illinois Following a chronology of Illinois history entries are organized in both chronological and topical chapters The volume provides the only extensive bibliography on Illinois history currently available Covering the entire span of Illinois history from prehistory to the present the chronological section includes chapters on such major periods as the early exploration and territorial periods the Civil War era the 19th century and the Depression era Topical chapters include broad topics such as economic history education environment and native Americans The volume also includes a section devoted to biography and one covering general and regional histories and reference sources Brick Streets in Illinois Royce Baier, 1991 Modern Mothers in the Heartland Lynne Curry, 1999 In the early twentieth century ambitious social welfare campaigns linked the improvement of health to the broader aim of modernizing American life Lowered mortality rates especially among infants and young children became for reformers a barometer by which to measure society's overall progress To date most analyses of Progressive Era child welfare movements have concentrated on urban areas in the Northeast and the national leadership role played by the Children's Bureau Modern Mothers in the Heartland in contrast shifts the focus to the Midwest Illinois provides an interesting case study because its rates of infant and maternal mortality tended to be higher than those of other midwestern states and Chicago's rates were consistently higher than those of other major industrial centers Drawing on local and state sources to reconstruct the nature of a maternal and child health work Lynne Curry highlights the interactive character of health reform policy makers clients of community health services practitioners and the volunteers who worked with them negotiated the final outcomes of the campaign's stated aims Situating maternal and child health reform in its historical and regional contexts this study uses information about Illinois's distinctive social economic and political history even its geography to enhance the analytical picture
