No Place Like Home David Staples, 2007-11-21 No Place Like Home examines the emergence of home based women workers as paradigmatic figures of contemporary capitalism neoliberal governmentality and socio political contestation Far from an isolated or contingent situation home based work constitutes today an enormous arena of invisible social and political struggles of subaltern and ethno racially subordinated women A Place Like Mississippi W. Ralph

Eubanks, 2021-03-16 This is the book all of us Mississippi writers dead and alive need to read It is indeed a strange but glorious sensation to see your literary and geographic lineage so beautifully and rigorously explored and valued as it s still being created Kiese Laymon author of Heavy An American Memoir The South has produced some of America s most celebrated authors and no state more so than Mississippi Names as diverse as Faulkner Welty and Ward have created a literary legacy spanning decades and stretching across lines of class gender and race One thing binds together these wide ranging perspectives the land itself In A Place Like Mississippi W Ralph Eubanks explores those ties and the ways in which the Magnolia State has fostered such a bounty of expression The stories haven t always been easy to tell even beautiful landscapes can t obscure a complicated history The state s African American writers have long recounted the fight for equality forming a lineage of powerful Black voices that continue to speak with urgency in our tumultuous times Yet underlying those truths is also a deep affection for Mississippi s places With the love of a native son Eubanks pays tribute to the inspiration that can come from the lay of the land proving that a journey through one state s literary terrain can help us better understand America as a whole People and Place Lewis Holloway, Phil Hubbard, 2001 An innovative introduction to Human Geography exploring different ways of studying the relationships between people and place and putting people at the centre of human geography The book covers behavioural humanistic and cultural traditions showing how these can lead to a nuanced understanding of how we relate to our surroundings on a day to day basis While taking the importance of these different approaches seriously as ways of thinking about the role of place in peoples everyday lives the book also tries to encapsulate what has been so vibrant and exciting about human geography over the last couple of decades By using examples to which students can relate such as how they imagine and represent their home the way they avoid certain spaces how they move through retail spaces where they choose to go to university how they use the Internet how they represent other nations and so on the authors show how geography shapes everyday life in a manner that is seemingly mundane yet profoundly important A Hidden Place Robert Charles Wilson, 2011-09-29 In the hard years of the Depression young

Travis lives with his uncle and aunt Upstairs lives the mysterious Anna Anna says she s going to be changing and she needs Travis s help for purposes she won t explain What follows is a tale of passion terror and hope opening out to a great dark and unsuspected universe Snow Place Like Home Lacey Baker, 2023-10-10 From the author of Christmas in Evergreen The Bells Are Ringing adapted from the Hallmark Countdown to Christmas original movie comes another heartwarming small town romance where two childhood sweethearts find their way back to each other while planning the town's Christmas tree auction. On a rare trip home for the holidays, Ella may have finally uncovered the secret to a joy-filled future by getting lost in her past. Ella Wilson has avoided home and the holidays for nearly a decade. For her, the season is plagued by a jinx that's brought nothing but painful memories: her mother's death nearly two decades ago, her fiancé's abandonment last year, and now the loss of her job as an art curator. But without work to occupy her home is exactly where Ella has ended up. And somehow she's also been roped into planning the town's Christmas tree auction side by side with her first love. Seth Hamil knows that home is where the heart is, and for him, it's always been the sleepy community of Bellepoint, Pennsylvania, and for a while in high school that included Ella Wilson. Since then, he's been married and widowed and has spent the year throwing himself into his career as a music teacher and trying to keep his wife's memory alive, starting with the church fundraiser she launched to support local kids. So despite their history, Seth isn't about to let his wife's vision for the event be easily dismissed by Ella's temporary presence and big city ideas. To find a way to work together, the two strike a deal: Ella can incorporate her splashy ideas into the auction if she will allow Seth to show her why Christmas is about more than decorations. Soon both begin to wonder whether fate has brought them together for a fresh start, and if Christmas wishes really can come true. The book includes a set of discussion questions perfect for book clubs or personal reflection. This uplifting tale of love rediscovered, interwoven with the joy of the holiday season, is the perfect fireside read this Christmas.

No Place Like Home: Ancient Near Eastern Houses and Households Laura Battini, Aaron Brody, Sharon R. Steadman, 2022-10-06. This book had its genesis in a series of 6 popular and well-attended ASOR conference sessions on Household Archaeology in the Ancient Near East. The 18 chapters are organized in three thematic sections: Architecture as Archive of Social Space, The Active Household, and Ritual Space at Home. No Place Like Motorhome Lisa Mills, 2020-05-31. City girls LOVE country boys, right? When a country-loving bachelor gets a rude introduction to a cultured, sophisticated city girl, they instantly clash. But as they're thrown together, time and again they realize their two worlds might not be as far apart as they initially thought. Meet Darcy. As Darcy Granger finishes her graduate degree and looks for employment, her parents make the inexplicable decision to abandon successful careers, lease their New York City apartment, and purchase a motorhome to become full-timers. As a young adult, she should be eager to start her own life, but her wounded inner child mourns that her safety net has been pulled away, and there's no nest for her to fly back to. To make the transition easier, her parents invite her to stay with them while she looks for a job as a research librarian. Born and raised in New York City, Darcy struggles to acclimate to the campy lifestyle her parents have adopted. They drag her out on rural excursions where high-heeled shoes dare not go, and forms of outdoorsy torture lurk around every bend in the road. Then there's Marc. Marc Fitzsimmons is a twenty-seven-year-old writer who roams the country pulling a travel trailer behind his pickup truck and penning articles for magazines. He loves living a casual life on the go, seeing new sights, and meeting new people at every stop. The career he's chosen feeds his adventurous soul and fills him with satisfaction but it s definitely made it difficult to date He s almost given up the idea of marrying and having children knowing the odds of finding a woman who wants to share his lifestyle are slim to none When these two meet on the campground sparks fly but as they get to know one another those sparks ignite a flame in their hearts that is hard to ignore A lighthearted clean romance novel The New Monthly Magazine ,1879 Hill places in India Marianne North,1892 Report of the Civil Service Commission of the City of Brooklyn Brooklyn (New York, N.Y.).
