Mahmoud Darwish, Exile's Poet Hala Khamis Nassar, Najat (ed.) Rahman, 2008 Mahmoud Darwish's work has long been considered seminal in shaping modern Arabic poetry He has received wide international recognition and is regarded as a contender for the Nobel Prize Often deemed the Poet of the Resistance no substantial critical study exists that addresses the complexity of Darwish's poetry in rewriting the homeland and articulating exile. His later poetry consciously marks a move away from his earlier portrayals of identity, home, and poetry, yet many critics have failed to take note of this shift. His oeuvre yokes poetry and history, the political and the poetic, probing identities in perpetual exile. This book examines the complex connections between poetry, myth, lyric, prose, and history in Darwish's poetry. The scholarly articles in this volume situate his work in relation to both modern Arabic and world poetry. In addition, the articles address issues such as the future of poetry, the role of the poet, language, cultural heritage, lyrical modes, as well as the relationship of place and identity.

Literary Disinheritance Najat Rahman, 2008. Literary Disinheritance examines the shifts in the articulations of home in the works of the Palestinian poet Mahmoud Darwish and the Algerian writer Assia Djebar, considering their writing as an instance of a larger cultural expression in the Arab world. Darwish's and Djebar's notions of home respond to textual delineations of heritage that have become historical. They identify a long literary heritage that not only speaks of dispossession and effacement but also suggests that those very predicaments are historically enacted through nationalist and religious readings of inherited stories. The patriarchal narratives that forge collective identity are revisited and reopened in order to reconstitute the trope of home; they call attention to different facets of discontinuity in their heritage. Author Najat Rahman locates and explores the treatment of these discontinuous moments as they emanate from a rigorous reflection on writing.

Modern Poetry in Translation, 2002. Martyrdom in Literature Friederike Pannewick, 2004. This book aims to achieve a deeper understanding of the very human phenomenon of martyrdom by analysing in detail its highly varied re-enactments in European and Middle Eastern literatures. Despite its divergent historical, religious, philosophical, or political circumstances, there does seem to be a certain inner logic, a metaphorical structure or symbolical subtext underpinning and thus unifying these heterogeneous literary manifestations of the idea of martyrdom. In this volume, eighteen researchers from the fields of literary, historical, and religious studies reflect on the way concepts of martyrdom are represented, staged, praised, or critically deconstructed in different world literatures.
