Placing Sorrow:

A Singing Contest Meg Tyler, 2013-11-05 A formal analysis A Singing Contest comprises close readings of Seamus Heaney's poetry Tyler argues that in an era of fractured poetry and politics Seamus Heaney stands out his impulse is towards unity and regeneration Her book considers the interplay between different kinds of literary tradition and community in his poetry For Heaney poetry represents a structure allowing imaginative mediation of conflicts that appear irreconcilable in the social political and historical realms By detailed structural analysis of diction meter imagery and generic form Tyler illustrates how Heaney's poems create concords from discords unities from fracture From the preface by Rosanna Warren A Singing Contest is written with imaginative and emotional urgency and in some large sense as it examines Heaney's spells it seems itself to want to cast a spell against death Hence Tyler's return in various ways to readings of elegy whether the fictive elegies of classical pastoral poems or Heaney's personal elegies She pores in detail over Clearances the sonnet sequence composed in memory of the poet's mother in The Haw Lantern and she concludes her book with a chapter on literary elegies Heaney's farewells to his friends and admired contemporaries Ted Hughes Zbigniew Herbert and Joseph Brodsky In these analyses one sees the wholeness of Tyler's project her argument that for Heaney literary tradition itself rightly received and transformed reaches into the voids made by death and establishes connection across rupture Her thesis is an ancient one and she gives it particular shape and force in asking us to contemplate it at work in Heaney where it binds individual to collective experience and past to present
