The Cambridge History of American Music David Nicholls, 1998-11-19 The Cambridge History of American Music first published in 1998 celebrates the richness of America's musical life. It was the first study of music in the United States to be written by a team of scholars. American music is an intricate tapestry of many cultures and the History reveals this wide array of influences from Native European African Asian and other sources. The History begins with a survey of the music of Native Americans and then explores the social historical and cultural events of musical life in the period until 1900. Other contributors examine the growth and influence of popular musics including film and stage music jazz rock and immigrant folk and regional musics. The volume also includes valuable chapters on twentieth century art music including the experimental serial and tonal traditions.

The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Ellen Koskoff, 2017-09-25 This volume makes available the full range of the American Canadian musical experience covering for the first time in print all major regions ethnic groups and traditional and popular contexts. From musical comedy to world beat from the songs of the Arctic to rap and house music from Hispanic Texas to the Chinese communities of Vancouver the coverage captures the rich diversity and continuities of the vibrant music we hear around us. Special attention is paid to recent immigrant groups to Native American traditions and to such socio musical topics as class race gender religion government policy media and technology.

Musics of Many Cultures Elizabeth May, 2023-07-28 The foremost authorities in the field of music from around the world have contributed twenty original essays for this volume edited by Elizabeth May. Only European musics have been omitted except insofar as they affect other musics discussed here. North American music is represented by the musics of the Native Americans and the Alaskan Eskimos. The essays are profusely illustrated with maps drawings diagrams photographs and music examples. There are extensive glossaries bibliographies and annotated film lists. The book is directed to readers seriously interested in acquainting themselves with musics beyond the confines of Western musicology. Contributors include Bruno Nettl Kuo Huang Han and Lindy Li Mark Kang Soek Lee William P Malm David Morton Bonnie C Wade Margaret J Kartomi Adrienne L Kaeppler Trevor A Jones Atta Annan Mensah John Blacking Alfred Kwashie Ladzekpo and Kobla Ladzekpo Cynthia Tse Kimberlin Jozef M Pacholczyk Ella Zonis Abraham A Schwadron David P McAllester Lorraine D Koranda and Dale A Olsen. Please note this book was originally published with records. The edition available now does not include the records. We are hoping to make the original recordings available in some other way. The foremost authorities in the field of music from around the world have contributed twenty original essays for this volume edited by Elizabeth May. Only European musics have been omitted except insofar as they affect other musics discussed here. North
