Planemakers and Other Edge Tool Enterprises in New York State in the Nineteenth Century Kenneth D.

Roberts, Jane W. Roberts, 1970 Guide to the Makers of American Wooden Planes Thomas L. Elliott, 2018-09-07 With its initial publication in 1983 A Guide to the Makers of American Wooden Planes profoundly transformed the emphasis and direction of tool collecting. After several years of meticulous research, Thomas L. Elliott has completely redesigned, revised, and expanded this fifth edition to include entries and information accumulated since the fourth edition. The heart of this guide is the alphabetical directory of plane makers and dealers. This fifth edition now includes 4590 biographical entries, 6160 imprint illustrations, 3030 wedge outlines, and over 3000 individual ratings for judging relative scarcity and value. Also included are sections providing insights helpful in buying and selling planes, an illustrated glossary of plane terms and styles, and an extensive bibliography for further research. This book is useful to both the beginner and the advanced collector, to historians and genealogists, and to all others with an interest in the subject. Cabinetmaker's art in Ontario, c. 1850-1900 L. A.

Koltun, 1979-01-01 This study examines the life and work of a rural nineteenth century Ontario cabinetmaker, Francis Jones. An appreciation of his work is gained through illustrations and discussions of his shop and furniture making techniques. This story is typical of many nineteenth century crafts when industrialization resulted in mass production and the disappearance of traditional trades. Published in English Early American Technology Judith A. McGaw, 2014-01-01 This collection of original essays documents technology's centrality to the history of early America. Unlike much previous scholarship, this volume emphasizes the quotidian rather than the exceptional: the farm household seeking to preserve food or acquire tools; the surveyor balancing economic and technical considerations while laying out a turnpike; the woman of child-bearing age employing herbal contraceptives; and the neighbors of a polluted urban stream debating issues of property, odor, and health.

These cases and others drawn from brewing, mining, farming, and woodworking enable the authors to address recent historiographic concerns, including the environmental aspects of technological change and the gendered nature of technical knowledge. Brooke Hindle's classic 1966 essay on early American technology is also reprinted, and his view of the field is reassessed. A bibliographical essay and summary of Hindle's bibliographic findings conclude the volume. The contributors are Judith A. McGaw, Robert C. Post, Susan E. Klepp, Michal McMahon, Patrick W. O'Bannon, Sarah F. McMahon, Donald C. Jackson, Robert B. Gordon, Carolyn C. Cooper, and Nina E. Lerman. Publications of the American Folklife Center, 1977 Dictionary
