Secret Artist A Close Reading Of Sigmund:

The Secret Artist Lesley Chamberlain, 2011-01-04 Widely acclaimed for giving an understanding of the connection between Nietzsche's personal experience and his most famous ideas Christopher Lehmann Haupt New York Times in her biography of Nietzsche Nietzsche in Turin Chamberlain now renders a similar service to readers of Freud In this book part biography part literary criticism she takes the reader into the mind of Freud toward a better understanding of the thinker his work and art itself The very idea of the subconscious as a constant active presence in our daily lives was Freud's greatest contribution and has allowed generations of people to experience their lives more deeply His rigorous exploration of the dynamism and structures of the subconscious Chamberlain argues was in itself an important work of art Using Freud's own writing on art and the aesthetic theories of thinkers ranging from Nietzsche to Lionel Trilling Chamberlain examines Freud's art and shows how his imaginative creations have revolutionized not only mental health but our thinking about art in general by opening up the individual subconscious as a subject In elegant accessible prose she describes how Freud split the aesthetic atom releasing a vast energy for individual creativity

Subjects and Simulations Anne O'Byrne, Hugh J. Silverman, 2014-11-05 Subjects and Simulations presents essays focused on suffering and sublimity representation and subjectivity and the relation of truth and appearance in the twenty first century Inspired by the work of Jean Baudrillard Philippe Lacoue Labarthe and JeanLuc Nancy sixteen authors study how the real reasserts itself in an age of every more fragmented media and how art and literature give us access to forms of truth that elude philosophy How does representation grant us access to the place once occupied by the subject Is political life possible Can plural thinking be retrieved Will metaphor and simulation give us ways of being in an evanescent world The volume engages discussions of French and Continental philosophy post structuralism deconstruction simulacra aesthetics existentialism and media theory

The Reception and Rendition of Freud in China Tao Jiang, Philip J. Ivanhoe, 2013-05-07 Although Freud makes only occasional brief references to China and Chinese culture in his works for almost a hundred years many leading Chinese intellectuals have studied and appropriated various Freudian theories However whilst some features of Freud's views have been warmly embraced from the start and appreciated for their various explanatory and therapeutic values other aspects have been vigorously criticized as implausible or inapplicable to the Chinese context This book explores the history reception and use of Freud and his theories in China and makes an original and substantial contribution to our understanding of the Chinese people and their culture as well as to our appreciation of western attempts to understand the people and culture of China The essays are organised around three key areas of research First it examines the historical background concerning the China Freud connection in the 20th century before going on to use reconstructed Freudian theories in order to provide a modernist critique of Chinese culture Finally the book deploys traditional Chinese thought in order to challenge various aspects of the Freudian project Both Freudianism's universal appeal and its cultural particularity are in full display throughout the book At the same time the allure of Chinese cultural and literary expressions both in terms of their commonality with other cultures and their distinctive characteristics are also scrutinized This collection of essays will be welcomed by those interested in early modern and contemporary China as well as the work and influence of Freud It will also be of great interest to students and scholars of psychology psychoanalysis literature philosophy religion and cultural studies more generally The Jewish Quarterly ,2000 The Literary Review ,2001 Kafka, das Schloss und die Schuhfabrik Paul Krontorad,2004 Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock,2002-02 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details Psychoanalysis and History ,2002 Book Review Digest ,2002 The Writers Directory ,2004 American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2000 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests
